STRITCH ARRIVES IN CHICAGO: The body of Samuel Cardinal Stritch, former Archbishop of Chicago, is carried through lines of uniformed police and firemen after it arrived from Rome via chartered aircraft. The Cardinal, who died after a short illness in Rome, was beloved by the people of Chicago where he served for many years. He will be buried on Tuesday, June 3.

Final Tribute

Thousands File Past Bier Of Samuel Cardinal Stritch

CHICAGO (AP) — Thousands laid solemn siege to the Holy Name Cathedral Saturday. They stood in the hot noonday sun, four and five abreast in a line three blocks long. They waited their turn to enter the church and walk past the bier of Samuel Cardinal Stritch.

A fire department ambulance stood at the curb to aid any who fell by the wayside. Once inside the cathedral, the people split into a double file and took a last look at the man who was the spiritual leader of the Chicago archdiocese's Roman Catholics—almost two million of them—for 18 years.

The body of the cardinal, who died Tuesday in Rome, was clad in vestments and lay in state near the altar rail. The open casket was tilted up at the head so all could see. They filed past hour after hour. A tall, poised girl in a sack dress who possibly was from the nearby Gold Coast. An old woman in a house dress and a drab babushka, who obviously wasn't.

A middle-aged Negro couple. Two young fellows in sports shirts. A camera bug, a stocky man who snapped a picture as he walked by. A small boy in a cowboy suit. A mother carrying a baby in her arms.

By noon, 20 hours after the body had been carried into the cathedral, an estimated 48,000 had moved past the casket. The viewing will continue until the funeral Tuesday.

A man was overcome by the heat a girl fainted in the sun outside the near North Side church. Earlier, the cathedral was jammed by nuns and brothers who attended a Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass. Most of them were nuns. In their black habits, with white trimming about the head.

Highway Fatalities Continue To Mount

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Holiday celebrators died in traffic smashups at a rate faster than one every 15 minutes Saturday. The death toll, soaring at record speed, prompted safety officials to plead for more caution.

The Memorial Day observance opened the full panorama of sudden death on the highway — flaming single and multiple death car-car, car-truck and train-car collisions.

The four biggest crackups snuffed out a total of 21 lives.

The death rate pushed well ahead of that set in 1955 when a record high traffic toll of 369 was counted for a three-day Memorial Day weekend. It outdistanced an advance estimate made by the National Safety Council.

1 a.m. EDT 235 traffic, 81 drowning, 47 miscellaneous, total 363

"Unless somebody slams on the brakes good and hard, the nation is headed for an all-time high in highway slaughter, over a Memorial Day holiday," said Ned H. Dearborn, safety council president.

"We appeal to the good sense of the drivers to slow down this needless death and destruction—if for no other reason than it's your, and your family who are involved."

Accident fatalities spurted at the start of the holiday period, dropped off Friday night and then went into an ominous climb Saturday that safety officials called alarming.

The traffic death toll by late Saturday was more than 30 ahead of the casualties counted during the same holiday hours in record year 1955.

Seven perished in a flaming car-truck collision on a narrow bridge near Ranger in north central Texas. Four of the seven victims burned to death, and two others were buried from their smashed vehicles. The pavement was slick with rain.

Another fiery head-on collision killed six persons at Mount Vernon, N.Y. One of the victims was about speeding shortly before the other five died in the flaming wreckage of the second car.

A fast freight rammed into a stalled auto containing three persons while a fourth man was attempting to push it from the tracks at a crossing in Perdue, Ala. All four were killed.

Four teen-age boys perished when their auto collided with a truck on the outskirts of Snellville in southern Texas.

An Associated Press survey, made for comparative purposes, showed 294 persons were killed in traffic accidents during the 78-hour nonholiday period from 6 p.m. Thursday, May 15, to midnight Sunday, May 18. The holiday period covers the same hours.

"I certainly believe that the integrity of the individual services should be preserved," Bridges said. "However, we shouldn't create any bottleneck for the dispatch of military orders in an atomic age."

The bill unanimously approved by the House Armed Services Committee provides for an operational Joint Staff through which there would be a clear line of command from the President and the secretary of defense to the field military forces made up of more than one service.

The House committee wrote into the bill provisions under which the head of any service could appeal to Congress from a decision of the secretary transferring any function of that service. Congress could veto such a change by a simple resolution of both Houses, not requiring presidential signature.

Eisenhower protested this would lead to "legalized insubordination," and the continuation of wasteful duplications and inter-service rivalry. Although he demanded changes, senior GOP members of the House committee were reported to have advised the White House to postpone any fight over the issue until the bill reaches the Senate.

Six years ago the same prelate granted the permission that enabled the Ozone Park Long Island, N.Y. girls to begin preparation for the asterbrook.

They had been refused by many orders because of their handicap. Finally, a friendly priest, the Rev. Andrew Ambro at the Catholic career conference in Jamaica, N.Y., determined to help them dedicate their lives to God.

Presley finishes basic

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP) — Rock 'n' roller Elvis Presley checked out of Ft. Hood Saturday, his eight weeks of basic Army training finished.

The singer, minus his flowing locks and guitar, had an airplane ticket for his home in Memphis, Tenn., for two weeks leave before starting his final stateside stint.

Elvis is bound eventually for duty in Germany with the 3rd Armored Division as a tank crewman.

His training in the United States will end Sept. 29 and then he will go to New York for embarkation.

Ft. Hood officers called him a fine soldier.

French Crisis Rouses Fear For NATO

WASHINGTON (AP) —

U.S. officials watched Saturday with a mixture of hope and fear the relentless return of Gen. Charles de Gaulle toward supreme authority in France.

The fear is that while a De Gaulle regime may resolve the immediate crisis in France, it may lead to a new crisis between France and other countries within the North Atlantic alliance.

The hope that De Gaulle will use his strongman position to reform France's unstable parliamentary system, solve the Algerian problem, and do all this without endangering the pattern of French-American-British cooperation within the framework of NATO.

The impact of the French crisis and De Gaulle's policies on the future of the Atlantic alliance and Western relations with Russia probably will dominate talks scheduled here soon between American and West German leaders and then between President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan.

German President Theodor Heuss is due here Wednesday, accompanied by Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano.

Next weekend Prime Minister Macmillan will come for a round of talks on questions which have to be considered in the uncertain light of future French policies.

Evidence of how potentially dangerous the situation is was found in dispatches from Europe to the effect that France's economy is bordering on bankruptcy. These reports took State Department officials by surprise, and some felt the situation could not be that bad.

French diplomats, however, confirmed that the hopes held in January for France's financial recovery have not been realized. They said the United States joined European allies and international agencies in arranging credits and assistance valued at more than $53 million. That was supposed to get the French economy back on its feet but evidently has failed.

The coincidence of the financial squeeze and the political crisis is extremely unfortunate. So far as Washington can judge, the combined effect is toward a resurgent French nationalism.

Little Girl, Lost 7 Days, Found Sleeping Behind Fallen Tree

RAINY RIVER, Ont. (AP) — A wet and shivering girl, lost seven days in tangled bush country, was found sleeping behind a fallen tree Saturday.

Brought out of the wilderness into her mother's arms, 11-year-old Carol Johnson said she lived on grass and weeds during her week-long fight with nature.

"I was praying constantly," said her mother, Mrs. Walter Johnson. "I had faith I would see her again, even though the rest thought she was dead."

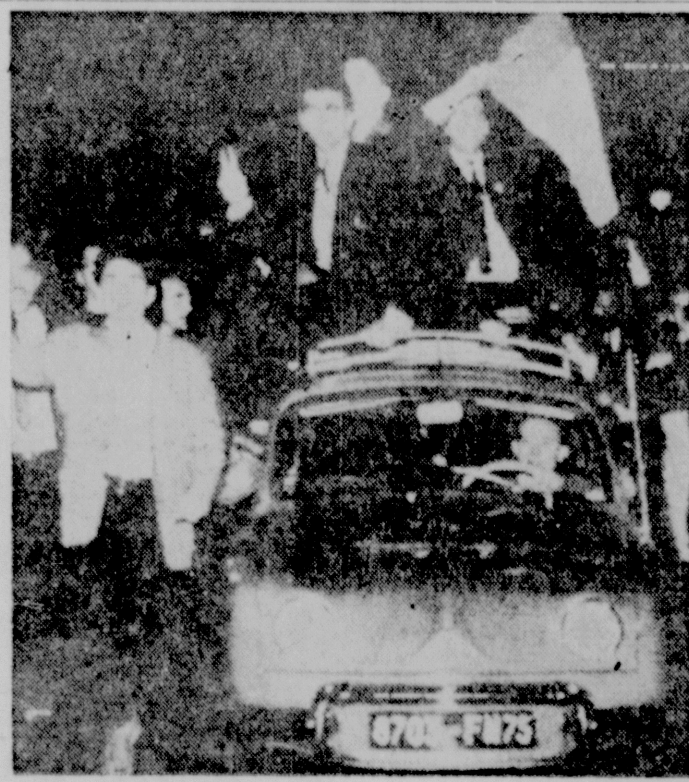

Carol was found sleeping along a bush road while a search party of 500 volunteers exerted a final effort to locate her.

Saturday's hunt was to have been the last of a week of sleuthing through the dense undergrowth at the eastern end of the Lake of the Woods, north of Rainy River, community.

Khrushchev Agrees To Ike's Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower received a letter from Soviet Premier Khrushchev Saturday reportedly agreeing to a prompt start of scientific talks on ways to police any ban on nuclear tests.

Eisenhower had proposed to Khrushchev a week ago that the talks be opened in Geneva, Switzerland, by mid-June. He suggested that the Western side be represented by scientists from the United States, Britain and France.

Khrushchev's reply was considered by officials here to mean that the meeting of Soviet and Western experts will get under way within the next two weeks.

The letter was given to Undersecretary of State Christian Herter by Ambassador Mikhail A. Menshikov. The State Department said it was being translated and sent to the President.

Though the message was not made public it was considered to be a positive reply, from the point of view of American interest in trying to work out ways of enforcing a moratorium on testing.

Success in the technical talks could lead to an East-West agreement for test suspension. Eisenhower has received recommendations for such a decision from Secretary of State Dulles and his science advisor, Dr. James R. Killian, Jr. He probably will rule in favor of the recommendations in the next few weeks.

The Soviet government announced earlier this year that it would hold no more nuclear tests but reserved the right to reverse its position unless the United States and Britain followed the Russian example. The United States and Britain nevertheless went ahead with planned experiments and the U.S. tests now under way in the Pacific will not be completed until some time in the summer.

Before the tests started Eisenhower said that he might consider an end to testing at least for a time if the present series produced the information needed by scientists to make smaller and cleaner nuclear weapons. Since he expressed that view it has been reported that he might not wait until the end of the tests to announce a change in U.S. policy, a move which would be his concern for world public opinion, pressure to stop nuclear explosions.

UAW Contracts Running Out, No Agreement Near

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers, already working without a contract at General Motors, conceded Saturday there was little chance of reaching agreement with Ford and Chrysler before those contracts run out Sunday midnight.

UAW bargaining teams met with Ford and Chrysler and prepared for a final session Sunday in efforts to win new contracts or day-to-day extension of old ones.

The Bulletin and the Courier-Post published, but made no distribution. Copies were sold over the counter in the newspaper offices.

The Sunday Bulletin published four editions, likewise available only in that way.

GM's contract with the UAW ran out Thursday midnight, leaving 300,000 GM workers without a UAW contract for the first time in 21 years.

GM turned down a union request for extension of the old contract on a temporary basis until a new pact is worked out. It seemed likely Ford and Chrysler also would refuse an extension, but company spokesmen said a decision would not be made until the final hours of the contract.

UAW sources conceded it appeared likely 100,000 Ford production workers, who have been covered by UAW contracts since 1941, would lose that protection Sunday night. A similar situation faced 75,000 Chrysler workers who have been represented by the UAW since 1937.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther, who joined GM negotiations Thursday in an unsuccessful effort to work out an agreement to join Ford negotiations Sunday.

To Address Assembly Today

PARIS (AP) — Gen. Charles de Gaulle, triumphant after weeks of powderkeg maneuverings in Algeria and France, agreed Saturday night to become premier and bring a soldier's discipline to the long-paralyzed government.

To Proclaim Program
De Gaulle announced he will address the National Assembly in person Sunday to proclaim his program and his cabinet. The Parliament then will vote on whether to confirm him.

The balloting appeared to be only a formality. Political leaders assured De Gaulle Saturday of a majority in the 565 Assembly votes. The total approving his appointment is expected to be between 320 and 360.

Meets Coty
De Gaulle formally notified President Rene Coty Saturday night of his agreement to form a new government.

Their meeting lasted half an hour. Then they emerged from Coty's office to pose for photographers for two minutes. Both were smiling broadly, a rarity for the usually stony-faced De Gaulle.

"Crisis Over"
"The crisis is over now," Coty told newsmen massed on the steps of Elysee Palace. "We now have a premier-designate."

De Gaulle said nothing. He wore his glasses and looked straight ahead. He talked in low tones with Coty for a moment, then drove away to his hotel.

Officials Pleased
Other officials, laughing and shouting, began shaking hands on the palace steps. Two government aides threw their arms around each other in an exuberant embrace.

The news spread swiftly through Paris but brought no repetition of the disorders that broke out in the heart of Paris Friday night when enemies of De Gaulle clashed with his supporters.

Coty Intervenes
Coty intervened at Elysee Palace when police started to chase the reporters and photographers from the steps.

Strike Stalls Circulation Of Three Papers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A drivers' strike Saturday stalled circulation of three metropolitan newspapers. Operations at one of them—the Philadelphia Inquirer—were practically at a standstill owing to a walkout of 750 American Newspaper Guild employees, officially set for midnight.

Struck by the drivers, besides the Inquirer, were the Philadelphia Bulletin, with the largest evening circulation in America, and the neighboring Camden (N.J.) Courier-Post, just across the Delaware River.

The Inquirer Guildsmen had hoped the Thursday picket lines posted around the plant Friday night. They were joined in this Saturday by members of the mechanical unions.

Because of that a plan for executives to put together the Sunday editions was abandoned. Only the magazine and comic sections, printed earlier in the week, were obtainable at the Inquirer's main office.

The Bulletin and the Courier-Post published, but made no distribution. Copies were sold over the counter in the newspaper offices.

Strawn Women Meet At Home Of Mrs. Newbery

The Strawn's Crossing Woman's club had the regular meeting Tuesday, May 27, at the home of Mrs. Roy Newbery east of the city. There were eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Elmer Moody, present.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Ethel Strawn with the flag pledge and the Lord's prayer repeated in unison. It was announced Guest Day would be June 10 at the Southern Aire cafe at 1 p.m. Reservations must be in by the ninth.

The flower collection was taken by Mrs. Roy Fox. The program for the afternoon was in charge of Mrs. Adaline Rawlings who left Saturday for a tour overseas. She read a paper on "What Is Ahead for Your Community?" telling what happens to some of the beautiful country homes when they pave the four-lane highway.

Mrs. Rawlings played and sang "Far Away Places" and "Lohmond."

The next meeting will be June 10. The hostess served refreshments.

Ebenezer WSCS Entertained At Martin Home

The lovely country home of Mrs. Marvin Martin was the scene of the May meeting of the Ebenezer WSCS, with Mrs. Donald Crabtree and Mrs. Charles Reid assisting.

With Mrs. John Hadden presiding, eighteen members answered roll call by naming a famous mother of the Bible. The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Sherwood Eddy, who enriched the topic of "March of Mission Dollars" with her experiences in India. Mrs. W. G. Hadden, assisted by 15 members, presented the study.

The president announced that the officers for the new year will be installed June 2, at 11 a.m., by Rev. Main, too, she again asked for a member to attend the school of missions, June 23-27. During the business meeting the secretary's report was read and approved and the treasurer's report accepted.

The society voted to have an ice cream social some time in July.

Mrs. Doyle Taylor, in charge of the daily vacation Bible school, asked for empty spoons, pretty bottles for bud vase craft, yarn, "raps," 15" scraps of ribbon, pencils and crayons.

After the meeting closed by all praying the Lord's Prayer, delicious refreshments were served to the members and follow-up guests: Mrs. Lester Martin, Mrs. Bernard Jarvis and daughter, Mrs. Lottie Crabtree, Sue Rigg, Barbara Jo Hansmeier, Lyn Crabtree, Garry and Cindy Martin.

Newly elected vice presidents who were not present for the picture are Mrs. Hugh Green and Mrs. William Allen. Co-secretaries are Mrs. Mildred Davidson, MacMurray Alumnae secretary, and Mrs. F. J. Ferry.

Mrs. Norbury announces a dinner meeting for all board members, Wednesday evening, June 4, at 6 p.m., in McClelland dining hall. The meeting, which will include all out of town board members also, will be for the purpose of organizing the new association.

Services of the Civic Music Association, a national non-profit organization, were discontinued at a recent meeting of the Jacksonville board. Re-organization will place this concert-sponsoring group entirely on a local basis, with the new title "The Jacksonville-MacMurray Music Association."

Organization plans have already started, Mrs. Norbury has announced, with committees soon to be appointed for the membership campaign next September.

St. John's Alumni Banquet Tonight At Carrollton

CARROLLTON—The Rev. Father John Ratchford of Kampsville will be the guest speaker at the annual Alumni banquet of St. John's High school to be held Sunday evening in the Knights of the Columbus Hall. Honored guests will be the members of the class of 1953 who will be celebrating their silver anniversary. The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Mitchell Enright pastor of the local St. John's Catholic church will serve as master of ceremonies.

There is no graduating class to be honored this year as last year the four year High School was changed to a two year high school and the students transferred to the new Carrollton Community Unit High School. This year another change has been made and the high school at St. John's has become a thing of the past and hereafter the school will have classes from the primary through the eighth grade only.

The high school classes were added in September 1952 during the pastorate of the Rev. Thomas E. Cusack and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael Enright is the pastor of the church at the present time. The parish school was organized in 1877.

Recital Sunday Afternoon
 Miss Nita Ford will present a group of her students in the third of a series of recitals Sunday June 1, at 3 p.m., in the auditorium of the Carrollton Baptist church. Guests on the program will be Miss Beckey Carpunky, Miss Donna Sue Allen and Miss Marilyn Mehl who will play a flute trio.

Students appearing on the program are Dottie Allen, Jay Pinkerton, Beverly Ivers, Linda Elmore, Ricky Kirby, Barbara Probst, Carolyn Sample, Jeanne Lovel, Sharon McCurley, Sheryl Trusty, Marsha Journey, Donna Sue Allen, Marilyn Mehl, Becky Carpunky, Penny Seely, Linda Barry, Patty Nell, Bonnie Seeley, Karen Handlin, Donald Day, Rita Sue Sheets, Katherine Vogt, Carolyn Butler and Georgann Lashmet.

The members of the graduating class of the Carrollton Community Unit High School are spending the weekend at the Lake of the Ozarks.

They are accompanied by Miss Beverly Grimmer, Darrell Smith, Guy Petty and Mr. and Mrs. Carol Tapp Sr.

News Notes From JHS

By Connie Rae Copeland and Junior Gotschall

Graduation festivities highlighted last week at JHS. The always impressive baccalaureate services were held at Annie Merner Chapel of MacMurray College on Sunday evening. Rev. Frank Marston of Grace Methodist church gave the sermon "Wholesome Living." He was assisted in the services by Rev. Lando Eitzen, minister of the Congregational church.

On Wednesday the entire student body enjoyed a picnic and dance. The guys and gals of JHS made good use of the recreational facilities of Nichols Park. The last school dance of the year was held in the park pavilion that evening. Boots Brennan and his orchestra provided the music for the occasion.

An assembly was held Thursday to award various athletic letters earned during the year. The presentations were made by the coaches. At this time pins were given to the Editors of the Crimson "J," Milton Schroeder and Steve Wilson, and to the editors of the Herald, Rebecca King and Charlotte Cody for their work on the school publications.

The JHS gym was the setting for Commencement exercises Thursday evening. A quotation from "Alice in Wonderland" by Lewis Carroll, Curiouser and curiouser!—Now I'm opening out like the largest telescope that ever was!—was the theme for the salutations given by the top five students of the graduating class.

They are Suzanne Carroll, Richard Ommen, Stephen Wilson, Milton Schroeder and Stanley Caine. Later, 299 seniors received diplomas from Dr. James A. Bunch, President of the Board of Education, to climax four marvelous years at JHS.

This concludes another year at JHS. We hope that by reading this column you have received a better outlook upon the activities of the teen-agers in JHS. Here's wishing a happy and prosperous summer.

Roodhouse Children To Sign For Swimming

ROODHOUSE—Fifty applications for free swimming lessons have been issued to Roodhouse by Morgan county to participate in the swim program this summer. The program is being conducted at Nichols Park, Jacksonville, July 21 through Aug. 1.

Parents who are interested in instructions for their youngsters may pick up forms at the Record office. These forms must be signed by a parent and returned to Mrs. Grover Shipton, water safety chairman, who must send them to Greene County Red Cross chapter as soon as possible. Applications will not be accepted in any other manner.

Lessons are held for two weeks, Monday through Friday in the morning. A child must be at least 52 inches tall and entering the third grade.

Clean-Up Drive
 The first organized city-wide clean-up drive has been completed in Ashland. Block captains report the citizens of Ashland were cooperative and eager to do their part in beautifying Ashland.

Homer Meyers was in charge of the collections, and to the block captains who supervised the clean-up in their respective areas; the FFA boys and their ag teacher, Coyle, spent two hours cleaning pavements as a community project. It is hoped that the clean-up drive will be repeated annually.

Scout Camp Program

Since the Ashland Boy Scouts had not been informed about the Scout camp, the original deadline for camp applications has been extended, according to Jack Corrigan, Boy Scout executive, who will be at the Boy Scout headquarters Monday, June 2, to tell parents about the camping program and to show films.

All scouts are urged to be present with one or both parents. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. (DST) at the Youth Center building.

Will Dedicate Memorial To Thomas At I.C.

The dedication of a memorial to the late Benjamin P. Thomas will be a special feature of the Illinois College 1958 Commencement.

This memorial, a gift of the Civil War Round Table of Springfield, which Dr. Thomas helped found, consists of a portion of the Tanner Library Reading Room and a collection of books on the Civil War History in the mid-West. Dr. Bruce Catton, Illinois College commencement speaker and a personal friend of Dr. Thomas, will deliver the dedicatory address at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, June 7, in Tanner Library.

Benjamin Thomas, a trustee of Illinois College, was the 1954 Pulitzer Prize winner for an historical work, "A Stillness at Appomattox." He also received the National Book Award the same year.

The Civil War Round Table executive committee for this memorial is composed of Oliver Keller, Sr., president of the Round Table, Robert Oxtoby of the law firm of Van Meter and Oxtoby, and Clyde Walton, Illinois State Historian.

Announce Engagements

Shirley Joyce Overbey

WINCHESTER—Announcement is being made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Shirley Joyce Overbey of Joliet to Jonas R. Lashmet of New Lenox, Ill. Miss Overbey is the daughter of Mrs. Ernest E. Overbey and the late Mr. Overbey, of 1015 W. Jefferson St., Joliet. Mr. Lashmet is the son of Mrs. Audrey Lashmet and the late Jonas Lashmet of Winchester.

The wedding will take place on June 28 at 2 p.m. at St. Patrick's Church in Joliet with the Rev. Edward J. McCarthy officiating.

The bride-to-be received her B. S. Degree from the University of Wisconsin where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega social sorority. She is presently teaching at the Rich Township High School, Park Forest.

Mr. Lashmet is a graduate of the Winchester High School, and received his B. S. degree at Illinois State Normal University. He was awarded his Master's Degree at George Peabody College. For the past several years he has taught at the Lincolnway Community High School, New Lenox, Ill., and has also been football coach.

The young couple is spending the weekend at the home of his mother in Winchester.

Shirley Eileen Reveal

Mr. and Mrs. Oren E. Reveal, southeast of the city on Jacksonville route four, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Shirley Eileen, to Keith Allen Rector, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wishard Rector, Waverly route one.

The wedding will be solemnized on Sunday, July thirteenth, at the First Methodist church in Waverly.

Miss Reveal graduated from Jacksonville High School in 1957 and is employed in the credit department at Sears.

Mr. Rector graduated in 1956 from Waverly High School and is employed by Sangamon County Highway Department.

Onalee Eberhardt

Mrs. Gary H. Eberhardt, 232 Prospect Street, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Onalee Eberhardt, to Wayne Brian Anderson of Aurora, Illinois.

Miss Eberhardt is the daughter of Mrs. Eberhardt and the late Gary H. Eberhardt. Mr. Anderson's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Anderson of Aurora, Illinois.

The bride-elect graduated from the Jacksonville High School in 1954 and will receive a Bachelor of Science degree in Education in June from Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana. She is a charter member of Phi Beta Chi sorority. Mr. Anderson received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Valparaiso University in 1956 and will be graduated this June with Bachelor of Laws degree. He is a member of Delta Theta Phi, law fraternity.

The ceremony will be solemnized at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon, June 22, at Salem Lutheran Church, in this city.

Mrs. Thomas K. Liu

Miss Olive Maud Chen And Thomas Liu Married In City

An afternoon ceremony at three o'clock Saturday, May thirty-first, at First Presbyterian church united in marriage Miss Olive Maud Chen who will receive her degree today at MacMurray College, and Thomas K. Liu, post-graduate student at the University of Illinois.

One hundred and fifty guests attended the double ring ceremony performed by the pastor, Dr. Joseph Baus. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Chen.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Su-Tu Chen, live in Hong Kong. A Jacksonville couple, Mr. Liu, Hardy Chen, Robert Chien and Mrs. L. Arch Vasconcellos, represented the groom's parents.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church at Jane Hall, MacMurray College, residence hall of the bride. Pink and white were used in decorating. The serving table was appointed in Cambridge crystal and silver with the base of the cake encircled with pink and white flowers.

The newlyweds will leave June first for a two weeks wedding trip in the state of Colorado.

The bride graduates today from MacMurray College where she majored in mathematics. The groom received his Master of Science degree in 1956 from University of Illinois, majoring in civil engineering. He will return to the University this fall to work toward his Ph. D. degree.

Mrs. John Liu of Chicago, was matron of honor and Mrs. Wayne Cheng, sister of the bride, was bridesmatron. Both attendants wore cocktail length pastel blue chiffon and carried colonial bouquets of pink glads.

The ceremony will be performed Monday, June second, at the Chapel of St. Albans Naval Hospital, Long Island, N.Y. The ceremony will be performed by Chaplain Carpenter.

The bride-elect is a U.S. Navy stationed at St. Albans Naval Hospital, Newport, Rhode Island. The couple plans to remain in military service for the present.

The annual picnic of Salem WSCS was held at the home of Mrs. Roy Robson. The assistant hostesses were Mrs. Blanch Koss and Mrs. Floy Stubblefield.

A potluck dinner was enjoyed at noon. The afternoon meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Robson, with the group singing "Jesus Is All The World to Me."

Mrs. Lucille Newberry gave the secretary's report. Mrs. Newberry also had devotions taken from the study book, "March of Missions."

Miss Fannie Boyd gave an interesting report of the National Assembly of Woman's Society of Christian Service which was held in St. Louis. Miss Boyd was a delegate from Salem.

Mrs. Marie Ranson had charge of the program. She read two articles, "A Farm Woman Looks at the World," and one for Memorial Day, "Known But to God," by Don Whorton.

The session closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Guests present were Mrs. Frank Crawley, Mrs. Clark Hill, Miss Karen Whiting, Mrs. James Robinson, Judy, Patsy, Linda and Nancy Davis.

Lioness Club Honors Past President

Members of the Jacksonville Lioness Club met Wednesday, May 22, at 6:30 p.m. in the County Fair Room at the Dunlap Hotel for a regular meeting with the new president, Lioness Florence Murray, presiding.

Twenty-two members and two guests were present, the guest being Mrs. Mary Zachary Cohen and Mrs. Pat Bonacors. The pledge of allegiance to the flag was led by Lioness Knowles and the invocation was given by President Murray.

Mrs. Earl Walters and Miss Mary Walters, co-chairmen of the decorating committee for the coming year, used larkspur, baptisia painted daisies and weigella in attractive arrangements, complimented by tall green tapers. Ivy was also used to border the speaker.

Lioness Frances Middendorf introduced Mrs. Mary Zachary Cohen who spoke on "Mental Health," giving an interesting and informative message relative to mental health programs and the assistance every citizen can give to this work.

The immediate past president, Mrs. Paul Hogan, was honored with a surprise personal shower at the close of the business session. A beautifully decorated cake, baked by the president, was served by her to the members and guests.

Miss Stahl To Close 46 Year Teaching Career

JERSEYVILLE—Miss Josephine Stahl, of Jerseyville who was named "Outstanding Teacher" in the Twentieth District of the Illinois Federation of Junior Women's Club a year ago, is resigning from the faculty of the Jerseyville East Elementary school, following 46 years as an educator.

Thirty-four years of her teaching career have been spent at the Jerseyville East Elementary school where she is a departmental teacher.

Miss Stahl received her elementary and high school education in Jersey county. She was graduated from the three year high school at Grafton where she resided, and took her fourth year high school work at Illinois State Normal University where she also did two years college work. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Shurtleff College in Alton.

She entered the teaching profession in 1912 in the rural schools in western Jersey county. Before coming to Jerseyville in 1924 Miss Stahl taught in Kemper and Dow. In addition to her work in the nine month school term, Miss Stahl has done tutoring during the summer and during the school year was always willing to devote part of her noon hour to assist any student who needed help.

She was selected by the Jerseyville Junior Woman's Club as "Teacher of the Year" and entered in the District Event as their candidate.

Accepting the gavel, the new president, Janet Schumacher, dismissed the meeting.

Tells Board Colleges Have Adjusted Work To Coordinated Plan

The two MacMurray colleges have adjusted to each other admirably in their first year of coordinate education, President Louis W. Norris reported to the Board of Trustees, Friday, May 30, at their annual meeting in Main Hall.

Third oldest senior women's college in the nation, MacMurray prepared for its 112th commencement today, after 130 freshmen at the nation's newest college for men had concluded their first year. The two colleges began their coordinate relationship last September, which is distinguished from coeducation because they remained independent in most campus and class activities although sharing social life.

President Norris told trustees that the pattern of student life at MacMurray was formulated by the men themselves, rather than borrowing it from the women's college or having it imposed upon them by the administration.

Trustees heard the MacMurray president describe progress by the men, with invaluable help from the women, in many areas during their historic first year. He pointed with pride to the new student government, together with a written constitution, which students soon set up. He paid especial tribute to the seven-man Judicial Board, whose members were at a disadvantage in gaining discipline and respect because they were classmates rather than upperclassmen.

"To begin a school year without a student government without tradition, without house regulations, without a judicial board, without a news organ, were great handicaps. The absence of upperclassmen to prescribe procedures in each of these areas was seriously felt by the entering students," the president said.

Hails Athletic Program
Dr. Norris paid tribute to MacMurray's first athletic teams, especially to a freshman basketball squad that won 13 of 25 games while playing almost all junior and senior colleges. Gary Little, a 1957 JHS graduate, was a key member of the first MacMurray team in 111 years.

MacMurray men selected their own athletic nickname early in the school year—"The Highlanders." The selection proved consistent with the Scottish theme adopted by first-year students, which included a seal of Scottish symbols, and the Scottish tartan of the Murray clan of Tullibardine, Scotland.

The clan are the ancestors of Senator James E. MacMurray, after whom the college was named, and who was the college's greatest benefactor. His wife, Mrs. Kathryn T. MacMurray, is president of the college's Board of Trustees and a resident of Arcadia, Calif.

Describes Cooperation
In describing cooperation between the two colleges, Dr. Norris commented that "as the two groups of students became acquainted, they asked searching questions of each other much the way two strangers who consider permanent friendship might do. The women have naturally wondered what the men would accomplish, what kind of college they would build, what effect their organizations would have on the women's college activities, whether they would be accepted socially and academically."

"The men, on the other hand," he said, "have been alert to discover whether they were welcome on a campus formally controlled by women, whether they were allowed sufficient individual freedom of initiative in planning their own student life, and whether the general public would consider them masculine if they lived in a vicinity where they were greatly outnumbered by women."

"Such friction has existed between the two groups of students this year has arisen from the effort of each one thoroughly to examine the credentials of the other," he continued. "This period of careful scrutiny is largely past, and it is now taken for granted that the men's college is established, that it is acceptable, and that it is a going concern."

Year's Gifts Announced
Gifts totaling $413,745.39 were received by MacMurray during the fiscal year May 1, 1957 through April 30, 1958, President Norris told trustees.

"The Founders' and Builders' program for MacMurray College for Men led in total gifts with $182,755.77," he said. A Founder is anyone who contributes $1,000 or more to MacMurray. Founders and Builders in 15 states have contributed more than $240,000 since the program began in the Fall of 1956.

Next highest total, he announced, was $116,175.00 representing gifts from Ford, Lilly, Esso, and Presser Foundations. A number of other gifts from foundations are being considered by Foundation officers, according to the Development office report.

These funds will be applied towards MacMurray's eight-year, $7,000,000 campaign to expand the new college. Plans envision construction of million-dollar science and engineering halls, along with a student union, more classrooms, a women's dormitory, health center, and library addition.

AWD And Auxiliary At Gold Star Banquet

The American War Dads and Auxiliary held its annual Gold Star banquet Tuesday evening, May 27, at 6:30 p.m. at the American Legion Home. Oliver McElrath acted as master of ceremonies. The welcome to the Gold Star parents was given by William Panning after which Wallace Hembrough responded for the Gold Star parents. Mr. McElrath introduced the State War Dad President, Prior Harvey. Other State and National officers present included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. William Fanning and Mrs. Eula Bland.

The Auxiliary chapter president, Mrs. Margaret Coraor was presented and she introduced the Auxiliary State President, Mrs. Thomas Ruby. Each officer responded with a few words.

Mrs. Virginia Vasconcellos led group singing, "Sweet Peace" after which Mrs. Margaret Coraor gave a humorous reading. All joined for group singing before the address of the evening by Lloyd Benckeser, National Executive Secretary of the War Dads. Mr. Benckeser took as his theme "idea." He opened with the landing of the Pilgrims, how it started with an idea. He traced important events of our history how back of it all was an idea. The Boston Tea party, Declaration of Independence was all someone's idea so we could be a free nation. The Civil War and slavery were dealt with and so each important event in our history stemmed from an idea.

The America War Dads organization was brought about by Nat Milgram, who had an idea parents should form an association to help their sons and daughters who were in, or who had been in the service of their country.

Mr. Benckeser said he felt that the best way to honor Gold Star parents is to do something about the seventh objective of the organization. "To work for a just and lasting peace."

Mr. Benckeser stopped enroute to Washington D.C. where he as National War Dad President, and two other War Dads, along with the National Auxiliary president will be present at the burial of the unknown soldiers in Arlington National Cemetery. He told the audience that the American War Dads had been selected to lay a wreath on the tomb of these two unknown soldiers. He told the audience the wreaths were being made in Kansas City and were 42 inches in diameter and contained 500 red, white and blue carnations and were tied with patriotic colors. Mr. Benckeser's talk throughout was most interesting and greatly enjoyed by all.

At the close of the address all sang, "God Bless America," after which Mr. Bland, Chapter, State and Assistant National Chaplain pronounced the benediction.

Each chapter held a short business meeting following the banquet. NO COMPETITION, PLEASE CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—Warren Air Force Base, destined to become the first operational base for the Atlas missile, has clamped down on its amateur competitors. Base officials announced no homemade missiles or rockets will be permitted at the installation.

CLASS OF 1913 OBSERVES REUNION

31 Boy Scouts Leave On Tour Through West

The tenth annual summer tour by members of Boy Scout Troop 107 started Friday morning when 31 Scouts and six adults left the city at six o'clock for the west. The entourage will visit the Badlands of the Dakotas, Mt. Rushmore, Black Hills, Yellowstone National Park, Grand Teton National Park, Little Bighorn Mountains, Rocky Mountains and other places of interest. This will be the most extended tour the troop has taken to date, 3,500 miles. They are traveling in five cars, three station wagons and two passenger cars.

The trip is under the direction of Scoutmasters Joe Grojean and Junior Davidmeyer. The group will be gone 12 days. Adults besides Grojean and Davidmeyer on the trip are John Linebaugh, Paul Harmon, Martin Newman and Art Roth. The cost to each boy, aged 11 through 14 years, is only $42.

The trip will present the opportunity to learn valuable Scouting experience firsthand in addition to furthering education concerning historical development of the West.

On the tour the Scouts camp out every night and eat from a field kitchen. At no time are they offered modern accommodations which the average tourist depends upon when traveling today. The troop equips each boy with his own sleeping bag and pup tent in addition to other types of camping and outdoor equipment.

Newly installed officers are president, Violet Auwarter; vice president, Mary Beth Spaulding; recording secretary, Lela Rose Tilton; corresponding secretary, Anna Mae Roach; treasurer, Shirley Ludwig; sergeant-at-arms, Marilyn McCord; historian, Bernice Rutherford; pledge supervisor, Johnny Linebaugh; and publicity chairman, Marge Turley.

Lincoln's 'House Divided' Speech Will Be Re-Enacted June 16

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Abraham Lincoln's classic "house divided" speech will be re-enacted June 16 in the room where the Great Emancipator delivered the famous address 100 years ago.

The re-enactment will take place in the Circuit Court room of the Sangamon County Court House, which in Lincoln's day was the House of Representatives hall of the Illinois State Capital.

There Lincoln uttered the words which set forth his beliefs on slavery and defined the issues which were to split the nation and throw it into Civil War.

A house divided against itself cannot stand. I believe this government cannot endure half slave and half free. I do not expect the union to be dissolved—I do not expect the house to fall—but I do expect it will cease to be divided. It will become all one thing or all the other.

The occasion was the final session of the Illinois State Republican Convention at which Lincoln accepted his party's nomination to oppose Stephen A. Douglas in the race for U.S. Senator. While Lincoln lost the election, his speech set the policy of the two-year-old Republican Party and was the stepping stone from which Lincoln went to the presidency.

Explaining the house divided passage to a friend, Lincoln said: "I want to use some universally known figure expressed in simple language, that it may strike home to the minds of men in order to arouse them to the peril of the times."

Just before the convention, he called about a dozen friends to the statehouse library and read them the speech. Early, manuscript report everyone there condemned the address except Lincoln's law partner, William H. Herndon. The objectors believed it would cost Lincoln votes.

Prophetically, Herndon told Lincoln: "deliver that speech as read and it will make you president."

Lincoln carefully weighed Herndon's remarks against the criticism of the others then decided, "the time has come when these sentiments should be uttered, then let me go down linked to the truth—let me die in advocacy of what is just and right."

A few days later, he delivered the immortal speech to a cheering crowd in the stifling-hot assembly room.

The re-enactment will be portrayed by actors from the Springfield Theatre Guild and in addition to the famous speech, will include events leading to Lincoln's nomination. State Rep. William H. Hensley of Springfield will take the part of Lincoln.

After a brief business session Mrs. W. E. Hall, program chairman, presented a varied program, consisting of brief resumes of favorite books and poems.

Among the books was one of copies of portraits of most of the U.S. presidents. Another consisted of pictures of early American homes and a third was one of famous paintings.

A poem by William Cullen Bryant, "The Forest Hymn," was given. The club adjourned for the summer to resume meetings in September.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Cocking presiding at the tea table.

Carrollton Cub Scouts Stage Circus Acts

CARROLLTON — The monthly pack meeting of the Carrollton Cub Scouts was held Wednesday evening in the basement of the Methodist church. The theme of the meeting had to do with a circus and the program opened with a circus wagon presented by Den 6 of which Mrs. Louis Schriber and Mrs. Ray H. Roll are the den mothers.

In addition to the circus wagon Den 6 also had a dart game and a pony ride.

Den 3 presented a clown act under the direction of den mothers, Mrs. Joseph Davidson and Mrs. Paul Pressler.

A lion act was given by Den 4 of which Mrs. Eugene Batty is the den mother.

A sideshow was contributed to the program by Den 2 with Mrs. R. Roth and Mrs. Mark Sanford as den mothers.

Refreshments were served at the close of the program by the following members of the Cub Scout committee, Louis Schriber, Ray Able and the Rev. Robert Pitsch.

CHIEF PAYS CLEARFIELD, Utah (AP)—The first annual City Dog Marshal Herbert Mottishaw picked up in a drive on stray puppies was owned by Police Chief A. G. Padgett. Padgett had to pay $1 to bail out his pet.

Review Favorite Books, Poems At Circle Meet

Mrs. W. E. Hall was hostess to the South Side Circle at her home, 1701 S. Diamond, May 30. Sixteen members and four guests were present: Mrs. C. P. McClelland, Mrs. W. H. Cocking of Houston, Texas, Mrs. Clarence Northing of Paris, Ill., and Miss Hazel Strawn.

After a brief business session Mrs. W. E. Hall, program chairman, presented a varied program, consisting of brief resumes of favorite books and poems.

Among the books was one of copies of portraits of most of the U.S. presidents. Another consisted of pictures of early American homes and a third was one of famous paintings.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Cocking presiding at the tea table.

4-H Club Activities

The Arnold Maids 4-H Club met May 24 at the home of Mrs. Everett Turner. The president, Pauline Turner, called the session to order and led the group in the pledges to the 4-H and American flags.

Miss Turner gave a demonstration, "How to Make Brownies" and Marilyn Broden told "How to Make Orange-Nog."

A talk was presented by Marilyn Sargent on "What Should a First Aid Kit Include." She also showed the group how to bandage a broken arm and ankle.

Refreshments of lemonade, brownies and cake were served and games were played. The next meeting will be held June 4 at Mrs. Ruel Parlier's home.

Municipal Airport Activities

Ten Stearman aircraft from the Marsh Aviation Co. of Phoenix, Arizona, stopped at Jacksonville Municipal Airport last Friday afternoon for refueling and overnight stay. They were on their way to New Brunswick, Canada, where they will perform spraying operations for the Canadian government. Each year these sprayers select Jacksonville for one of their enroute stops, both coming and going.

The twin engine Lockheed aircraft belonging to Byerly Aviation, received a new paint job at Wolke Aero Repair Shop last week. The 10 passenger aircraft is used for charter and air ambulance work both at Peoria and Jacksonville operations.

Henry Longmeyer, accompanied by his son Albert and wife, flew to Emporia, Kansas, last Sunday morning and returned Sunday evening. The flight was made in Longmeyer's Cessna 180.

The Heini Greenhouses Aero Commander twin engine aircraft landed at Jacksonville Municipal Airport on Tuesday and departed on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Redman stopped at Jacksonville Municipal Tuesday for fuel enroute from Pontiac, Mich., to Chillicothe, Mo. They were flying a Piper Tri-Pacer.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arns arrived at Jacksonville Municipal Friday in their Luscombe aircraft from Bryan, Ohio. They will visit Mrs. Arns' relatives in Carrollton.

R. R. Long, local distributor for Bucyrus-Erie company made flights to Moline and Cedar Rapids last week in his Beechcraft Bonanza aircraft.

Bill Rees and Byron Smith each flew to Indianapolis Friday for the 500 mile classic in their Stinson aircraft. Pat Henry and Jim Adkins of Franklin and Charles Finch of Jacksonville accompanied Rees and Harold Johnson, Louis Smith, and William Hayercraft of Franklin accompanied Smith.

Thomas Schuetz and Dean Perkins made a cross country flight to Des Moines, Iowa, Wednesday in Byerly Airlines Piper Tri-Pacer.

This week's winner of a free ride over Jacksonville and vicinity goes to the Robert L. Garner family of 230 West Douglas. The Garner family may phone Byerly Airlines at Chestnut 5-4620 for an appointment.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoher Wolke arrived Friday at Jacksonville Municipal Airport from Detroit, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Wolke were flying an Aerona Chief aircraft. They will visit with friends and relatives in Jacksonville.

QUITE A STUFFER

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—Judie DeGroote isn't a bit squeamish about her hobbies—raising white rats and taxidermy.

The 16-year-old ventured into the world of natural science last fall when she obtained two albino rats—one male and one female.

When one of the baby rats died, she consulted a couple of books on taxidermy and stuffed it. When she stumbled on a dead screech owl she prepared it and entered it in the DeKalb science fair.

With The Girl Scouts

Brownies and Volunteers who are going to Day Camp June 2-6 are reminded that they are to meet on West Morgan street, between Grace Methodist church and the high school gym by 8:15 Monday morning. This includes only those who do not already have transportation arranged. There will be cars waiting to leave for camp promptly at 8:30. In case of rain, and if there is any doubt as to whether camp will be held that day, listen to WJLS for an announcement at 8 a.m.

Troop No. 31 at Lafayette school enjoyed a picnic supper at Nichols Park on May 28. Parents and families of the Scouts were invited and there were seventy in attendance. Following the supper a Court of Awards was held and each of the girls in the troop received the Adventurer, troop dramatists and second class badges. Mrs. Charles Vieira, Mrs. Fay Daniel and Mrs. Clarence Brummett are leaders of the troop.

Members of Intermediate Troop No. 36 enjoyed an overnight at Camp Shagbark on May 23. Their leaders, Mrs. T. C. Rammelkamp and Mrs. Richard Lukeman, accompanied them.

Brownie Scouts in Troop No. 12 at Franklin School hiked from the school to Nichols Park Thursday morning and had a picnic lunch and a good time at the park.

The girls in Intermediate Troop No. 60 at Winchester and their leaders visited the Girl Scout office Tuesday afternoon. These Scouts are interested in Journalism and all have earned this badge. To complete the requirements for the Journalism badge they visited the Journal Courier and learned many things about how a newspaper is published.

In their troop activities, they made a hectograph and composed troop newspaper consisting of ten pages. The group concluded their outing by having supper in Jacksonville.

Those attending were Christine Campbell, Charlene Cox, Marlene Cox, Carol Harden, Carolyn Taylor, Marian Watt, Sandra Wisdom and the leaders, Mrs. George Lashmett and Mrs. William Campbell.

A new Brownie troop has been organized at Bluffs. Mrs. Eileen Howland is the leader and there are ten girls from the second and third grades registered.

SUBTLE APPROACH
HONOLULU (AP)—Democrats on two of Hawaii's islands are using a subtle touch in a drive to legalize cockfighting here.

They seek to include in the 1958 Democratic platform a plank which pledges the party to "Encourage the raising and breeding of poultry to implement recreational activity."

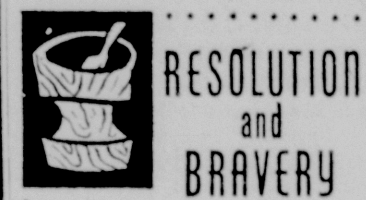

BUSINESS SENSE
ENID, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. John Senneff was awakened early in the morning by a deliveryman from a floral shop.

Only after he got Mrs. Senneff out of bed did the man find he had the wrong address. The man apologized and returned a short time later to give Mrs. Senneff a red rose for his trouble.

DR. NORRIS RECEIVES CIVIL WAR DIARIES

RESOLUTION and BRAVERY

Men like Pasteur, Lister, Koch had to struggle for scientific truths against the forces of ignorance, heresy and superstitions. But they won their battle just as surely as brave men fighting in combat.

Today's brave men of medicine and science are continuing the battle against disease. New medicines, drugs, vaccines are constantly being produced for better health, physical and mental welfare.

We take great pride in our complete prescription department and invite you to use our services.

Roodhouse Rotarians See 'Atom Comes To Town'

ROODHOUSE—Bill Frazier, who is associated with the CIPIS in White Hall, showed the film "Atom Comes To Town" before the Roodhouse Rotary club Wednesday night. The film was concerned with peace time use of atomic energy. He was introduced by Lloyd Coates, program chairman.

John Marshall and Tom Cornish were visiting Jacksonville Rotarians.

Honor Mrs. Redfield
Mrs. Herbert Brant was hostess at a coffee complimenting Mrs. Charles Redfield who is leaving for Flushing, Long Island, soon to join her husband, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Redfield received a number of nice gifts from the following women: Mesdames Guy Wolfe, Frank Merrill, Sr., William H. Wolfe, I. E. Close, Derrol Angle, Ralph Beck, William Martin, Charles Sprague, John Strain, William M. Gilmore, Richard Hopkins, Ned Hopkins, Smith Baird, Ray Ferguson, Lloyd Coffman, and the hostess, Mrs. Brant.

Guest Speaker
Frank McQuerry was guest speaker at the Greenfield Alumni Association Wednesday night.

The closing meeting of the Baptist Ladies Aid was held with a potluck dinner at the noon hour. A guest of honor was Mrs. Rebecca Bradshaw, Quincey. Mrs. Bradshaw, a former member of the aid, is now residing in Quincey to be near her daughter, Mrs. Alma Lubker.

News Notes
Mrs. C. V. Sifton and daughters are visiting her mother in Galesburg.

Mrs. George Griffiths, who has spent the winter in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Theodore Schance, has returned to her home. She was accompanied home by her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colwell and children have returned from visiting her father, Clyde Young, and wife in Nashville, Tenn.

Specialist Bigley received his parachutist wings after completing the two-week course which included five training jumps. He entered the Army in January 1955 and was last stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

The 21-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Winchester High School.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

HERE'S A HAPPY MAY QUEEN!

Miss Peggy Somers, MacMurray's attractive blonde senior from Canton, Ill., won all kinds of honors during commencement weekend. In addition to becoming a member of the Honor Society, (pictured elsewhere), she is here shown seated as Queen of the May after ceremonies Friday evening on Ann Rutledge Quadrangle. Miss Somers, who will start a business career in Chicago this summer, was also named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" last year, along with six other outstanding MacMurray seniors. She will graduate this afternoon with 91 seniors and graduate students.

A New Look At DAR's Impact On America

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—A little-known impact of the Daughters of the American Revolution on U. S. culture is their ability to inspire this caliber of verse:

Some of their noses are snub
And some are Roman
But all of them wear a ribbon
Across their abdomen.

A unique collection of such facets of the DAR's place and influence in America, plus an interesting, unbiased history of the organization is just off the press.

It reveals such exclusive historical facts about the Daughters as how Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt was given a life membership even though she probably wasn't qualified, and why one of the founders was almost denied recognition as such because she ran a rooming house.

"The DAR: An Informal History" is the name of the new book. Martha Strayer of the Washington Daily News, one of the most respected reporters in town, is the author.

"Although my colonial and Revolutionary ancestors were considered enough—and patriotic enough—to establish amply my eligibility for membership in the DAR, I've never taken advantage of this opportunity," Martha explains.

"However, it has been my good fortune to come to know the DAR as well as any member. I believe I've 'covered' the organization for a longer period than any other American journalist. I say this because I want any reader to know my credentials."

What Martha does is add a detailed, kindlier third dimension to Grant Wood's portrayal of the DAR in his well-known painting of the three severe women.

The Daughters, as a group aren't likely to endorse this book. But it's a safe bet they'll all find it interesting because Martha tells them some things about their own patriotic club which most of them will not have known before.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wilkins, St. Louis, Mo., have been visitors in the home of Mrs. Margaret Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Rabson, Peoria, were holiday visitors with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barrow, Peoria, have returned home after visiting in the home of his mother, Mrs. A. H. Barrow, and attending commencement exercises Tuesday night. His daughter, Barbara Barrow, who resides with his mother, was one of the graduates.

Holiday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Akers are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doyel, Peoria, and Mrs. Leta Kinsler, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John DuHasek, Chicago, are visiting Mrs. William Hult, Mrs. J. W. Tennill, and others. Mrs. DuHasek is the former Blanche Rawlins of this city.

MARTHA STRAYER: A kinder third dimension.

Mrs. Roosevelt resigned her life membership in the DAR in 1939 when the organization refused to let Negro singer Marian Anderson perform in their Constitution Hall. "Although there are indications that the organization never was enthusiastic about the former First Lady even before she resigned," Martha relates.

"More specifically, there still are whispers that Mrs. Roosevelt never was eligible for membership. It is alleged that her many Revolutionary ancestors made her only a collateral, not a direct, descendant of patriots, and that when the genealogists turned up this information the leadership chose to ignore it and admitted her as a member."

The founder who almost didn't get her name on the founders' memorial was Mrs. Mary Lockwood. She ran a rooming house in Washington with rates "$1.25 single, $1.50 double, per day."

A heavy summer rain kept her from an early organization meeting and the three other ring-leaders decided that this technically disqualified her as a founder. Martha gives a colorful description of the rhubarb which finally won Mrs. Lockwood the recognition she deserved.

"I have seen the Daughters do many wonderful things in connection with historical projects, their schools for mountain children and Americanization of the foreign born," Martha says. She describes these activities in a highly readable fashion.

"And I have also seen them do some silly things," Martha adds. She goes into these matters in detail, too.

The accounts of the DAR's efforts to rewrite the history books, set up a blacklist for suspected Communists, fight Ike's atom-for-peace program, limit immigration, force American school teachers to take loyalty oaths and keep the U. S. out of the U. N. are all told in careful detail.

Martha concludes: "I have watched the Daughters make mistakes and sometimes overrate the importance of their organization. But I have never underrated their loyalty, devotion and sincerity."

MERRY MAIDS FORMED 63 YEARS AGO THIS SUMMER

The Merry Maids held their spring potluck dinner at the country home of Mrs. Ada Winters, south of the city. Mrs. Anna Magill was assistant hostess.

They were organized 63 years ago this summer. Of the original 14 there are eight living, but they were unable to be present.

Those present were Mrs. Emma Taylor, Mrs. Sallie Barnhart, Mrs. Grace Smith, Miss Anna Duffner and the hostesses, Mrs. Ada Winters and Mrs. Magill. Miss Gladys Duffner and Mrs. Winters' daughter, Mrs. Inez Wilson were guests and Mrs. Hazel McAllister was an afternoon caller.

WEATHER DECISIVE FACTOR IN WEEK'S GRAIN FUTURES

By GIL MAYO

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures traders had their market firmly hitched this week to weather reports and forecasts. No other influence in weeks has moved the prices so decisively.

All other factors were noted only momentarily or not at all as dealers telephoned and telegraphed all known reliable sources in the northern Great Plains, the northwest and western Canada for more and more information on crop and moisture conditions in those areas.

Except for wheat, the facts were almost entirely bullish. Wheat reacted, too, but more moderately because of bearish reports from the southwest where the harvest had just begun.

Oats and rye made the broadest swings since much of the nation's yield of these grains is grown in the Dakotas and the northwest where reports said rain is badly needed to prevent widespread damage.

These reports created a strong demand in the futures pits and prices mounted steadily for rye with oats following at a slower pace. At the end of the week, corn also was on the climb and some of those contracts hit new highs for the season. The broadest corn advances were in the December and March contracts for both old and new crops.

At the close of trading on Thursday, wheat was 4-1/2 cents a bushel higher than at the end of the previous week, corn was 2-4/8 cents higher, oats 1-1/2 higher, rye 5-5/8 higher, soybeans 2-3/4 higher, and hard 2 to 17 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Legion Award Winners At Our Saviour's

For years now, the Illinois Department of the American Legion has recognized top grade school graduates on the basis of "scholarship, services and desirable character traits."

George W. Vasconcellos, past district commander, was on hand last Thursday morning to present the Legion awards to Don English, Jr., at left, and Tom Templin, graduates of Our Saviour's grade school.

English is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don English of rural route 2, Murrayville. Templin is the son of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Templin, 36 Sunset Drive.

Hospital Notes

(Hospital notes are obtained from families of patients. Phone hospital items to CH: 5-6121.)

Anne Spradlin, 619 S. Kosciusko, was taken to Passavant hospital Thursday as a medical patient.

Mrs. Amos Lamkular and Mrs. Leta Hammack accompanied Mrs. Neita Turner of Ashland to Barnes hospital in St. Louis, Mo., Thursday, the latter going for a check-up on the results of a broken hip two years ago.

Mrs. Stanley Roberts of Roodhouse is a patient at Our Saviour's Hospital suffering from a broken hip incurred in a fall at her home. Eleven years ago, Mrs. Roberts sustained a fracture of the other hip.

Russell Smith of Ashland is a patient at Passavant hospital, where he is under treatment for virus pneumonia.

George Alfred Edwards of Roodhouse entered Our Saviour's hospital Wednesday evening as a medical patient.

Robert Barnett of Bluffs who has been ill for several weeks underwent major surgery Wednesday morning at Passavant hospital. His mother, Mrs. Kate Barnett is also a patient at the hospital.

Mrs. Etta Atkins of Bluffs, who has been a patient at Passavant hospital since January, returned to her home Sunday.

Mrs. August Damin of Bluffs returned home from St. Mary's hospital in Quincy Thursday.

Gus Albers of Bluffs is a medical patient at Schmitt Memorial hospital in Beardstown.

Frank Baptist of Murrayville is a patient at Passavant hospital.

Industrialist Will Speak; 250 Attend Reunions Of Alumnae

MacMurray College women observed traditional commencement weekend activities, Friday and Saturday, as events fast approached their climax with graduation exercises this afternoon at four o'clock in Annie Merner Chapel.

The speaker will be J. Preston Levis, chairman of the board of Owens-Illinois Glass Co.

Saturday featured alumnae activities at the college, when classes held their 10th, 20th, 25th, and 50th reunions, and the Alumna-of-the-Year award was presented to a former Roodhouse woman.

Miss Hester Berry, a member of the 1933 class now residing in Indianapolis, Ind., received the alumna award from President Louis W. Norris after the alumnae dinner Saturday noon in McClelland dining hall. Her sister is Mrs. John Roberts, who still resides in Roodhouse.

She was presented with a three-inch bronze metal plate, with engraved nameplate, mounted on a walnut block. The plate carries the MacMurray seal and motto—"Knowledge, Faith, and Service."

Presented for the fourth successive year, the award was in recognition of Miss Berry's pioneering activities in a field not ordinarily entered by women—Air Traffic Control. She is the only woman in a crew of 21 air traffic control operators at the Indianapolis Municipal airport, where she talks over interphones with pilots coming in and out of the airport.

The award was also in recognition of her concern for national safety, as she has demonstrated on the job. A member of MacMurray's 25th reuniting class, Miss Berry was also presented the award for her loyalty to MacMurray.

The weekend also marked reunions by MacMurray classes of 1908, 1913, 1918, 1923, 1933, 1938, 1943, 1948, and 1953.

Largest class reunion was that for the class of 1938, which met in Kathryn Hall Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Catherine Lukeman Hoffman of Jacksonville is secretary of the 1938 class, with assistance by Mrs. Elsie Kitts Boush and Mrs. Alice Marie Lukeman Hartong.

The day began with alumnae workshops for club presidents and class secretaries in Main Hall. A reception for friends of the college was held in McClelland dining hall by President and Mrs. Louis W. Norris, Saturday, between 5 and 7 p.m.

More than 250 alumnae joined trustees, founders, faculty, students, and friends of the college in starting commencement week-end Friday evening with crowning of the May Queen on Ann Rutledge Quadrangle. This year's queen is Miss Peggy Somers, a senior from Canton, Ill.

Honor Society Meets

Seven MacMurray seniors were admitted to the college's Honor Society Saturday, May 31, at an 8 a.m. breakfast in the Hotel Dunlap.

Mrs. Sherwood Eddy, President of the society, presided over ceremonies honoring the following students: Annabel Barker, Mishawaka, Ind.; Namiko Kuonimaki, Nevada; Nancy Lester, W. Hartford, Conn.; Josephine Krussell, Perry, Ia.; Patricia Bauer, Berwyn, Ill.; Peggy Somers, Canton, Ill.; and Betty Lawson, Bellevue, N. J.

A scholastic average of 2.5 or better—almost an A—is required before students can be considered for membership in the society.

Mrs. Emily Allan Fay is Vice President of the organization. Mrs. Louise Krussell Norris is Treasurer, and Mrs. Annette Reierick Lohman is Secretary.

Dr. Elva Kimball, Professor Emerita of Sociology, discussed changes in MacMurray women in the past 25 years, as part of the Honor Society breakfast.

An innovation in the traditional Honor Society meeting was made this year when chairmen of the departments in which honor students majored, were also invited.

Dr. Elva Kimball, Professor Emerita of Sociology, discussed changes in MacMurray women in the past 25 years, as part of the Honor Society breakfast.

Two Addresses Today

Commencement weekend activities end Sunday with the public invited to MacMurray baccalaureate services at 10:45 a.m. in Merner Chapel, and to the commencement exercises at 4 p.m. Sunday, at the same place.

Dr. Earl Bowman Mariatti, Professor of Philosophy of Religion at Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, will speak at baccalaureate, while J. Preston Levis, board chairman of the Owens-Illinois Glass Company, will speak at commencement.

IN VITATION FOR BIDS

Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the City Clerk of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, until 7:30 P.M. June 2, 1938, to furnish, mount and install on a fire truck, viz:

- Two 750x30-19 ply Nylon tires
- Two 750x20 inner tubes
- Two 750x20-10 ply Nylon tires
- Two 750x20 inner tubes

The City of Jacksonville reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the City Council of the City of Jacksonville.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market nudged forward against heavy resistance this week to make another new high for 1938. The market was in the midst of a "supply area" represented by stock bought well below the year's peak prices and now for sale.

Steel and railroads made progress on good news for both of these industries. Coppers, aircrafts and electronics also performed well.

The steels continued higher as the industry's production moved up from the depths for the fourth straight week. Some profit taking was apparent in steel shares early in the week but thereafter their trend was higher.

Rails were encouraged by the Senate Commerce Committee's approval of an 8-point bill to aid the financial condition of the carriers.

Airlines, snuffing a good chance of similar relief for themselves if the rail bill is passed, also perked up.

Copper stocks rose as the price of the red metal was boosted at the custom smelter level and as higher world prices were posted.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose 50 cents to $170.10 putting the average at its highest level since last Sept. 19. The new high was just a bit above the previous peak of $169.90 reached May 9.

It was the stock market's second straight weekly rise. This meant a resumption of a five-week uptrend which was interrupted by some backsliding three weeks ago.

The market was virtually stalemated so far as the popular average was concerned for the first three days of this four-day market week. On the final day the list made a moderately good rise, enough to push through to the new peak.

New York Bond Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The corporate bond market closed higher this holiday-shortened week with rates providing much of the steam. U. S. Government bonds were mixed with a tendency toward the upside.

The rail component of The Associated Press index of 60 representative bonds established new 1938 highs on Wednesday and again on Thursday. Utilities and industrials also edged higher for the week. Foreign dollar bonds were steady but top grade investments drifted lower.

Trading volume for the week declined to $30,771,500 par value on the New York Stock Exchange from $23,325,200 for the five-day previous week. A year ago, volume was $16,169,000 for the Memorial Day week.

DE GAULLE'S PROGRAM

PARIS (AP)—Persons close to Gen. Charles de Gaulle said Saturday night he will detail to the National Assembly Sunday a program along these lines:

1. He will go to Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco and try to end almost four years of the Algerian nationalist rebellion by creating a French North African cooperative group.
2. He will call for more executive power and submit this and other governmental reforms to a popular referendum.
3. He will ask extraordinary powers, especially for the ministers of finance and economy.
4. He will ask the Assembly to declare itself in recess until October.
5. He will pledge liberty for labor unions, an end to censorship and abolition of the state of emergency.

There also are reports De Gaulle will pledge himself to remain in office for a limited period. Some say a year. Some say six months.

FRENCH CRISIS ROUSES FEARS FOR NATO

The fact is, however, that the worst misgivings felt here about De Gaulle are from past history, rather than any up-to-date information. He is a complete question mark. No one seems to have a clear idea what the 67-year old general will do.

TWO CARS COLLIDE IN MINOR ACCIDENT

A car driven by Joseph Shannon, Jr., 243 Webster Ave., collided with an auto driven by Ivan E. Stewart, 857 North Prairie, at 9:03 p.m. Saturday at the intersection of Sherman and Lafayette avenue.

The Shannon auto was going west on Lafayette and the Stewart car was travelling east on Lafayette.

City police attended at the scene of the accident.

DE GAULLE TO BRING SOLDIER'S RULE TO FRANCE

"Let them alone," he said. "Now we can relax. They have been waiting a month and a half. It is now up to the National Assembly to decide." Coty added, "Of course, I cannot anticipate the results."

Outgoing Premier Pierre Pflimlin announced earlier the Assembly would be summoned to meet Sunday.

Socialist Support

De Gaulle cleared the last political roadblock on this anxious day when a strong bloc of Socialist deputies swung behind him. The Socialists had been the keystone of the Assembly opposition to his takeover.

The expected Assembly vote of 320 to 360 votes supporting the lanky World War II hero would be more than enough for a simple majority in the Assembly.

One of his spokesmen told reporters massed around De Gaulle's hotel headquarters in Paris that the general would be satisfied with this figure. He originally asked for pledges of 400 votes.

Back After 12 Years

Thus, after 12 years out of office and living in an atmosphere of enigmatic silence that he rarely broke, "Le Grand Charles" stood ready to take command again in France.

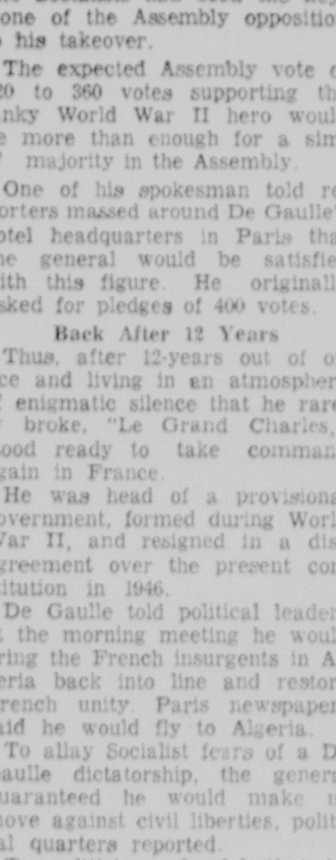

He was head of a provisional government, formed during World War II, and resigned in a disagreement over the present constitution in 1946.

De Gaulle told political leaders at the morning meeting he would bring the French insurgents in Algeria back into line and restore French unity. Paris newspapers said he would fly to Algeria.

To ally Socialist fears of a De Gaulle dictatorship, the general guaranteed he would make no move against civil liberties, political quarters reported.

To politicians fearful that he might lead France into isolationism, De Gaulle said he would honor every treaty France has signed. He specifically mentioned the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Many politicians had feared he might lead France out of NATO because he was known to resent what he considered a NATO role for France subordinate to Britain and the United States.

Girl Scout Leader In Scott

Mrs. Margaret Roosa, leader of the Girl Scouts of the Winchester neighborhood met Tuesday to honor Mrs. Margaret Roosa. The leaders and Girl Scouts of Scott county presented Mrs. Roosa with a statuette in appreciation of her many years of service.

Carol Roosa, daughter of Mrs. Roosa and a member of her Intermediate troop, represented the Girl Scouts in the presentation.

Mrs. Roosa has long been associated with Girl Scouting. She started three troops during her years of service. Girls and leaders both have found her a source of ready help. It was with great pride they offered this token of respect and esteem to her.

WASHINGTON (AP)—As it reached the two-thirds point Saturday the second session of the 85th Congress showed promise of becoming one of the most productive in years.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) called Congress' 1938 program the greatest in history except for the famous first 100 days of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal administration 25 years ago.

The actual count of major bills sent to President Eisenhower so far doesn't bear out what Rayburn said. It still may not when the Congressmen go home, probably late this summer, but the potential is there.

Aside from the yearly run of money bills finished or on the way the House and Senate have passed long-disputed legislation that will boost the price of first class letter mail to four cents and air mail to seven cents, starting Aug. 1.

Also sent to the White House was a military pay bill aimed at putting more money in the pockets of servicemen whose skills are needed by the armed forces.

These further out-of-the-ordinary bills seemed headed for passage.

Statehood for Alaska, an issue debated for decades, provided the Senate goes along with the bill the House passed last week.

Reorganization of the Defense Department to make the vast military effort more unified.

Creation of a civilian Space Agency to direct America's non-military ventures in this new field.

Safeguarding of labor union welfare funds, an outgrowth of long exposures of misuse of union money.

Still very much a question mark is the fate of another major measure, the Eisenhower-backed bill to extend the Reciprocity Trade Act five more years and give the President more tariff-cutting authority.

Seemingly without chance of passage are measures for aid to education, general labor law changes, Hawaiian statehood, and setting of procedures for the vice president to take over in case of presidential disability.

Both House and Senate calendars for this week show the heavy pace of the 1938 session.

The House is expected to act on creation of a Space Agency, extension of reciprocal trade, defense appropriations, extension of corporate and excise taxes, a federal pay raise, and housing legislation by the week's end.

The Senate takes up foreign aid and various money bills.

New Orleans Accepts Bus Integration

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Negroes sat side by side with white people on public buses and street cars Saturday for the first time in this city's long and turbulent history.

There was no reported violence. The city of Mardi Gras seemed to accept mixing of the races in public transportation with calmness—but you could feel the awareness of persons of both races.

Some people resented the court-ordered change in their lives. Unknown persons showed their resentment by burning an eight-foot wooden cross soaked with kerosene during Friday night on the lawn of U. S. Dist. Judge J. Skelly Wright, who signed the order ending bus segregation.

Cars Damaged In Crash On Square

Cars driven by Rosemary Watson, 731 South West street, and Harry Lee Sweet of near Franklin were damaged in a collision at 12:40 o'clock Saturday afternoon on the east side of the public square. Both cars were headed north, and the Watson car slowed to turn into a parking space.

Sweet's car is reported to have struck the other car in the rear. Sweet was issued a ticket charging following too closely. The right front end of his car was damaged considerably, and was towed to the McCurdy Ford garage.

Sgt. Wilbur Stafford and Patrolman Fred Spin investigated the accident.

ESTIMATED RECEIPTS

Harry Grayson's SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Here we are smack dab into June and not a decent outdoor fight scheduled.

This is what Cus D'Amato's one-man crusade against the International Boxing Club has done to what little is left of the pack busting business.

There is the startling news that Floyd Patterson has switched his training camp from Greenwood Lake to Kutscher's resort in the Catskills "preparatory to the announcement of a heavyweight title defense in mid-July. It must be frustratingly frustrating to young Patterson to continually train for a phantom fight.

Jack Dempsey commented on this strange situation between races at Belmont Park.

"D'Amato's break with the IBC may be commendable," remarked the Old Manassa Man Mauler, "but the sad part of it is that the manager is hurting Patterson more than Jim Norris.

"Gene Tunney was right when he said it was a shame to see Patterson win the championship at 21. As Tunney pointed out, as champion Patterson couldn't possibly fight often enough to learn. No one then could imagine D'Amato keeping Patterson idle as he has been. Any good fighter will tell you that a fighter learns to fight well only by fighting."

Reminded that Patterson could have earned $800,000 already this year had not D'Amato had such an extensive blacklist, Dempsey shook his head.

"I admire the boy's loyalty to D'Amato," he said, "but can't imagine a champion with any sense and pride permitting a manager to get him fouled up like that. I would not have stood for it. Neither would have Tunney, Joe Louis or Rocky Marciano."

Patterson could have collected $200,000 each for Pat McMurry in the Pacific northwest, Eddie Machen in San Francisco, Zora Foley in Phoenix and Mike DeJohn in Syracuse. Instead of taking these matches, which figured to be on the soft side for his tiger, D'Amato permitted the acceptable challengers to be knocked off.

"D'Amato got off on the wrong track fighting the monopoly," concluded Dempsey. "Patterson should have knocked off all those bums at championship rates and made himself the stickout figure in the game. Then D'Amato could have written his own ticket."

D'Amato blithely announced that Patterson would go postward three times this year, but time is rapidly running out. The trouble with Cus has been that he waits until the hot weather sets in and nobody is particularly interested.

Now under D'Amato's strict rules and regulations, just who is there for Patterson to fight? Crusader Cus has banished Willie Pastrano and Machen. Roy Harris, the Cut and Shoot, Tex., cloutier, is just out of a six-month stretch in the Army, would match Patterson only in inactivity.

With Patterson vacating the premises, Pete Rademacher checked in at Greenwood Lake talking as good a fight as ever.

"I'll knock out Zora Foley in Los Angeles in late July and then fight Patterson again," said the Olympic champion who started at the top as a professional and is now working his way down.

The Foley-Rademacher folly wasn't quite set, however, violent objections having been made about the City of Hope's "Fight for Lives" benefit drive being saddled with a $35,000 guarantee for each. And the last time we checked, the promoter was looking for a television sponsor.

Meanwhile, the IBC is sticking to indoor promotions at Madison Square Garden. So, we get plodding Willi Besmanoff against Harold Carter, who has been in the Army for a year, on June 13.

The only way Floyd Patterson could stir up excitement now would be to fight a couple of guys like that the same night.

Irish Bow To W. Michigan, 5-2

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Western Michigan, winner over Notre Dame in the NCAA district baseball tournament, Saturday defeated the Irish again in a regularly scheduled game 5-2.

Notre Dame ended its season with a 15-8 record. Western Michigan won 20-6 for the season, will now play in the NCAA final in Omaha June 13 after a scheduled contest with Michigan State.

Notre Dame's Gene Duffy and the Bronco's Joe Gresser each collected three singles in Saturday's game. By Innings: West. Mich. 020 002 001—5 6 1 Notre Dame 100 000 010—2 8 3 Topp and Belanger; Carpin, Symson (8), Bretting (9) and Wojcik.

Russians Arrive In Sofia For Red Party Meet

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet Communist party delegation led by Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived in Sofia Saturday night to attend the seventh congress of the Bulgarian Communist party. Moscow radio said the group's arrival by plane turned into a tremendous demonstration of Soviet-Bulgarian friendship.

There had been no preliminary announcement in Moscow that Khrushchev would make the trip. He took no top level Soviet official with him.

Bradley Beats Southern, 7-6

CARBONDALE, Ill. (AP)—Bradley outlasted Southern "Ilois University 7-6 Saturday in a contest that saw the lead change hands several times and wound up the baseball season for both schools. Bradley scored three times in the seventh on a two-run homer by Lanny Lamont, a single by Joe Napoli and a double by Don Groves. Southern narrowed the margin to one run in the ninth, which ended with the bases loaded.

Scotty Sullivan led Bradley at bat with four hits, two runs and two runs batted in. Carroll Bridges hit a two-run homer for Southern.

Orioles Topple Senators, 4-3, On 8th Frame Homer

BALTIMORE (AP)—Jim Marshall broke up a tie ball game with a lead off home run in the eighth inning Saturday night to lead Baltimore to a 4-3 victory over Washington.

Marshall also doubled home a run in the fifth inning. One of Washington's three runs off lefty Billy O'Dell was Jim Lemon's fifth homer of the season, a lead off blow in the fourth.

O'Dell went the route for his fifth victory against six defeats, lifting the Orioles out of the cellar in the American League. Washington, fresh from two thumping wins over New York on Memorial Day, dropped back to eighth spot. Washington 100 200 000—3 7 1 Baltimore 100 110 01X—4 7 0 Clete, Cleveland (4) and Courtney; O'Dell and Triandos L—Cleveland.

Villanova 1st Again In IC4A Track Meet

VILLANOVA, Pa. (AP)—Villanova won the IC4A track and field championship for the second straight year Saturday but before it was all over Wildcat Coach Jumbo Jim Elliott was holding his breath. The Wildcats wound up with 33 5-6 points to 27 1-3 for Penn State.

Villanova won five of the 16 events and was second in two others. Ron Delany, less than a month from the end of the line as a collegian, won both the mile and half-mile for the Wildcats.

Penn State was strong down the middle. Although the Nittany Lions managed to win only one event, they pushed Manhattan out of the runner-up spot and that was an accomplishment.

Delany broke his own meet record in the mile, coming home in 4:07.8. His half-mile time was 1:50, but he won easily.

All told, five meet records were set. The most notable was the 6-10 high jump of Phil Reavis of Villanova.

Besides Delany's two victories and Reavis' triumph, the Wildcats produced victories from Ed Collymore of the 220, which he negotiated in 20.3, and the broad jump, captured by John Buckley with a leap of 25 feet 3/4 inches.

Buckley was figured for a point or so if he was lucky. But he out-jumped the likes of Ira Davis of LaSalle and Mike Herman of New York University.

Collymore nipped Davis by a whisker in the 220. But little Ira, a hop-step and jumper in the 1956 Olympics, defeated Collymore in the 100 in 9.6. Collymore was the defending champion in both events.

Michigan State and Harvard each produced double winners in addition to Villanova.

The Spartans of the Big Ten won the mile relay in a meet record 3:10.8, erasing the 3:12.1 mark set by Manhattan in 1954. The quartet was composed of Brian Castle, Bob Hughes, Dave Lean and Willie Altshuler.

Crawford Kennedy, the Spartans' IC4A cross-country champion, also won the 2-mile in 9:13.1. Joel Landau of Harvard captured the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.2 and the 220 lows in 20.3.

The other records—besides Delany's in the mile, Reavis' in the high jump and Michigan State in the relay—were set in field events.

John Lawlor of Boston University got off a 198-6 toss in a hammer throw to better the 196-2 record held jointly by Bill McWilliams of Bowdoin and Al Hall of Cornell.

Don McGorty of Manhattan threw the javelin 229-2 1/2, beating the 228-3 1/2 by Al Cantello of LaSalle in 1955.

Manhattan wound up a well-beaten third with 22 points. Boston University and Pitt tied for fourth with 14 points each. Harvard and Penn each had 13 to tie for sixth. Michigan State sent only a skeleton team.

Bryan, Salih Pick Up Record $105,574 Purse

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Jimmy Bryan of Phoenix, Ariz., and car owner George Salih of Whittier, Calif., Saturday night picked up a record $105,574 for the Arizona cowboy's victory Friday in the 42nd 500-mile auto race.

The total purse of $305,217 also was a new record. The previous highs last year were $103,844, won by Sam Hanks, and last year's total purse of $300,252. The purse included $193,567 paid by the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, $28,000 in return of entry fees, $30,000 in lap prizes and $53,550 in accessory prizes.

Bryan's probable share under the usual driver's contract would be over $42,000.

He also won the Pontiac Bonneville pace car, a shelf full of trophies, a $1,000 wardrobe, a deluxe tool chest, an arc welder and accessories, a riding lawn mower and assorted merchandise and gift certificates.

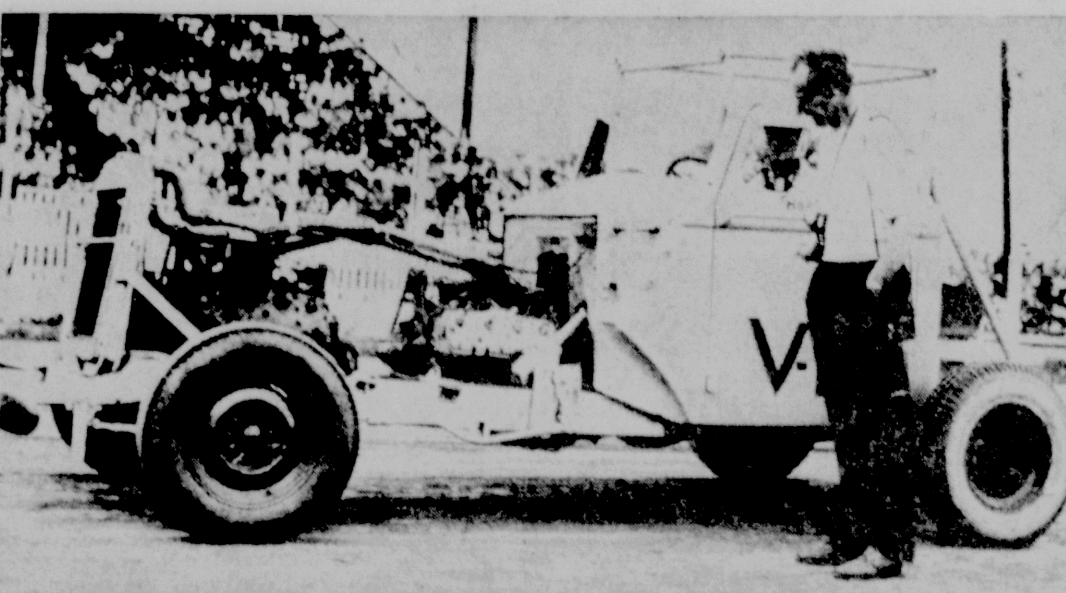

The prize list (generally 40 per cent to the driver and 60 per cent to the car owner) included: Tony Bettenhausen, Incles Park, Ill., $17,199; Jimmy Reece, Indianapolis, $8,699; Don Freeland, Indianapolis, $8,699; Paul Russo, Webster, Groves, Mo., $2,779; Chuck Weyant, Springfield, Ill., $2,549; Dick Rathjens, Indianapolis, $6,259; and Pat O'Connor, (killed in race) North Vernon, Ind., $2,874.

AND THERE THEY GO . . .

This is the first turn of the 10 lap feature of the day. Gary Mullens, number 73, led this pack of eight riders when they emerged from the first turn. His position was challenged during every tense moment of the race but when the dust cleared he was the victor by nearly half a lap.

VOT IN DA VORLDT?

Representing a German motorcycle manufacturer, (BMW), and touring this country as a service representative is Charles von Hild, examining this entry in the stock car races. Harold Wright of Detroit is the owner-driver of this "creation" which features two V-8 engines connected together. Mr. von Hild is an old hand at motorcycle racing on three continents but he witnessed his first "stock" car racing in Jacksonville.

Yanks Stop Bosox On Home Run By Slaughter, 5-4

BOSTON (AP)—Enos (Country) Slaughter ended New York's losing streak at four, 5-4, Saturday by lofting a two-run, 10th inning homer into the rightfield stands against Boston.

Slaughter connected off relief pitcher Leo Kieley after starting a last-ditch New York rally in the ninth as a pinch-hitter.

Dick Gernert tagged a solo homer for the Red Sox off winner Rindol Duren in the last of the tenth but it wasn't enough. Duren fanned three in his strike-out total to 26 in 17 frames this season.

Boston was riding on a 3-0 lead after eight innings with Willard Nixon and Dave Sisler sharing a two-hitter.

New York . . . 000 000 003 2-5 7 0 Boston . . . 100 002 000 1-4 9 1 Larsen, Dittmar (8), Duren (9) and Berra; Sisler, Nixon (6), Kieley (10) and White. W—Duren. L—Nixon.

Home runs—New York, Slaughter (2). Boston, Gernert (7).

ABC TOURNEY
NEEDS 'HOT' WEEK
FOR HIGH SCORING

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—The 1958 American Bowling Congress Championship, which many predicted would be the highest scoring affair in the 55-year history of the tournament, will need some outbursts in the final week if it is to live up to expectations.

The open team event, traditional barometer for evaluating overall ABC scoring, has produced 21 series of 3,000 or more this year. It seems unlikely the lower average quintets in the remaining eight days of the show will come up with the four 3,000 series needed to match the record of 25 set last year in Fort Worth, Tex.

There were no changes in the singles, doubles or all-events standings Saturday.

PLENTY OF FISHING MONEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service estimates that nearly 250 million dollars was spent on fishing gear in 1957. The fishing craze has also caught on with the manufacturers who are making hand-painted fishing scenes on their products. A safety razor company is packaging a gold-plated fishing lure in a kit that includes a safety razor as a Father's Day gift.

Three Golfers Tie For Lead In Western Open

By DAVE DILES

DETROIT (AP)—Three former collegiate golfers—Dow Finsterwald, Mike Souchak and Dave Ralston—turned in blazing sub-par performances Saturday and produced a three-way deadlock for the lead in the third round of the $25,000 Western Open tournament. Each had a 54-hole total of 205 11 strokes under par.

Par at Red Run is 36-36-72. Souchak's putter also was working miracles and the former Duke star credited recent tips from Ken Venturi for his 67 Saturday. Venturi was all alone in second place with a 206 total, just one stroke behind the three leaders after a tremendous 65 in his third round. Venturi captured most of the gallery early when the report came in that he had toured the front-nine in a blistering 30 strokes.

Tommy Jacobs, the halfway leader, could do no better than par Saturday and fell into a three way tie, two strokes off the pace. Burt Weaver of Beaumont, Texas, fired a 66 and Doug Sanders had a 70 and deadlocked with Jacobs at 207.

Sub-par showings by 30 of the 73 golfers who teed off Saturday left the race wide open for the $5,000 top money that will be decided in Sunday's final round.

Sixteen golfers stayed within five strokes of the leaders. Tied at 208, three strokes back, are Frank Stranahan of Toledo and Bob Rossburg of Palo Alto, Calif.

Defending champion Doug Ford had a 70 Saturday and was bracketed with four others at 210.

Gasper Accepts Coaching Post At Highland Park

CHANDLERVILLE (AP)—Mike (Mike) Gasper, assistant Peoria Manual football and track coach, has accepted a coaching position at Highland Park high school effective next September.

Gasper, heading the track team this past season due to the illness of the head coach, Frank Chismar, told of his resignation Saturday.

Mr. Gasper, 28-year-old graduate of the Chandlerville high school and Bradley University, said he will handle assistant basketball and track duties at Highland Park. He will receive a substantial increase in salary and will have a chance to work on his doctor's degree at Northwestern University.

He is the son of Mrs. Edna Mae Gasper of Chandlerville and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur King also of Chandlerville.

Akins Battles Vince Martinez For Title Friday

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Hard-punching Virgil Akins faces shifty Vince Martinez for the world welterweight boxing title Friday in a fight that has revived the ancient argument of which is better—the boxer or the slugger.

The clever Martinez is the underdog against Akins, a native St. Louisan who used his knockout punch to battle into contention for the title vacated by Carmen Basilio.

Akins is conceded to have the stiffer punch, although Martinez owns the better knockout record. The big question is, will Martinez ride the bicycle?

Martinez admitted "I've done too much back peddling," then announced he wouldn't be on the bicycle this time.

"This is the big one," said the 29-year-old Paterson, N.J. fighter. The Akins camp doesn't believe Martinez will be the aggressor.

"He's always fought on a bicycle and he'll do the same against Virgil, wait and see," said Bill Farrell, Akins' trainer.

Eddie Yawitz, Akins' manager, said he would ask the officials to make certain that aggressive tactics are properly recognized.

"Virgil is going to have to press him, keep on him, and make him fight," Farrell said. Akins himself is confident of a knockout, but won't name the round.

Martinez's Manager Bill Daly has no fear of Akins' punching power. He said his fighter can hit, too.

Trainer Whitey Bimstein said Martinez is in perfect shape, can take a hard punch, and challenged: "Can you name anyone who ever decked him?" Nobody has.

Martinez has won 60 of his 65 fights, 31 by knockouts, and has never been stopped. But his back peddling has hurt him in big fights.

The 30-year-old Akins has come strong in the past year after an erratic career. Just 18 months ago he picked up a $52 purse for a fight in Massachusetts. Akins has won 47 of 65 bouts with 27 knockouts and one draw.

WEARY PITCHING ARM

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Jack Barr, University of Oklahoma baseball coach, has taken much kidding about the pitching machine used in batting practice. He laughingly told a friend: "I made the mistake of letting my pitchers hit against it the other day. The machine's arm dropped off."

No Evidence Friday Of Tight Money At U.S. Running Track

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was no evidence of tight money at America's running track Memorial Day as 337,209 fans wagered a total of $20,220,669 on horses of their choice at 13 tracks.

The figures compare favorably with 1957 Memorial Day when 347,763 turned out at 13 tracks and bet $20,440,749.

Three tracks, topped by Belmont park's $3,815,122, had three-million dollar plus days. The largest crowd, 60,659, at Hollywood park sent $3,515,312 through the pari-mutuel machines. Belmont's attendance of 49,508 was second high.

Third in both attendance and wagering was Garden State where 43,649 wagered $3,291,106.

Baltimore at Washington Park was next in line with $2,130,769 from 32,828 fans. Suffolk Downs ($1,916,001 and 35,256) and Delaware Park ($1,194,932 and 23,341) completed the top six.

Sprint Races Shade Mile Run Saturday In California Relays

MODESTO, Calif. (AP)—Australia's slim Herb Elliott failed to break four minutes in the mile run Saturday night in the California Relays. But he won easily over an international field in 4:02.7.

The race, over the hard clay track in Modesto Stadium, was only the second of his past five races in which the 20-year-old Elliott has failed to run under four minutes.

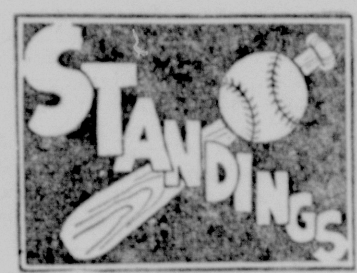

Two great sprint races overshadowed the mile for the capacity crowd of 10,000.

Olympic sprint champion Bobby Morrow captured the 100-yard dash in 9.4 seconds and Eddie Southern of the University of Texas ran the 400 in 45.9. Both those times were just one-tenth second off the world records.

The University of California sprint medley team cracked the American record with 3:18.8. Jack Yerman ran the 440-yard lap in 47.1, Monte Upshaw and Willie White ran 220s in 21.9 and 20.8 and Don Bowden went 880 in 1:49. The old record was 3:19.5 by the University of Oklahoma.

Morrow ran away from a star-studded field to win his century.

One of the three watches caught Morrow in world record time 9.3 but two others had 9.4, which became the official time.

Cleveland Drops 5-4 Decision To Kansas City A's

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Bob Cerv forged ahead in the major league home run derby Saturday night with his 14th circuit blow as the Kansas City Athletics edged Cleveland 5-4.

But neither Cerv's 400-foot smash nor a similar shot by Cleveland's Larry Doby decided the issue against the Indians' Horst Wilhelm, who replaced starter Mudecat Grant in the third inning.

The tying and winning runs came across in the seventh inning on only one hit with the help of a passed ball and two throwing errors.

Jack Urban, who pitched the first seven innings, got credit for the victory, his fourth against two losses. Tom Gorman worked the final two innings on the mound for the A's.

Cavan Nails Down Peter Pan Race

NEW YORK (AP)—Cavan, an Irish colt owned by Joseph E. O'Connell of Boston, pulled a silky Sullivan finish Saturday at Belmont Park when he came from last place some 15 lengths back for victory in the $29,950 Peter Pan Handicap by an easy four lengths.

The winner caught C. V. Whitney's Flamingo about an eighth of a mile from the finish after saving guts of ground by coming through on the rail. Cavan drew away with enough room to earn a starting berth in next Saturday's $100,000 Belmont Stakes in which Calumet's Tim Tam will try to complete the triple crown.

Flamingo managed to save second money by 2 lengths over the Wheatley Stable's Nasco.

Cavan paid $14.40, $7.30 and $5.20 and carried 115 pounds. Flamingo returned $7.70 and $5.40. Nasco paid $5.80 to show.

Awards in general competition will bring the total to $797,269.

The alternate watch, which wasn't needed, also had 9.3.

Morrow and San Jose State's Ray Norton broke fast and nearly even. Morrow pulled away about 30 yards from the start with Norton and California's Pacific Coast Conference champion, William White, challenging.

Neither could close the distance and Morrow finished about a yard in front of White with Norton third.

Elliott's time bettered the California Relays record, set at 4:06.4 last year by Derek Ibbotson of England.

Saturday night, Elliott ran behind Burr Grimm, formerly of the University of Maryland, and Velisa Mugosa of Yugoslavia for the first 440. He took the lead about 50 yards from the halfway point and held it to beat Hungar an refugee Laszlo Tabori by about 10 yards.

Foytack Blanks Pale Hose, 3-0 On Six-Hitter

DETROIT (AP)—Right-hander Paul Foytack pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 3-0 shutout victory over the Chicago White Sox Saturday night. It was the first shut-out of the season for the Tigers.

The setback snapped a five game Chicago winning streak and made Foytack a winner under the lights for the fourth time without a defeat this season.

His battery mate, Red Wilson, gave him all the support he needed with a sixth inning home run off Early Wynn. It was Wilson's second of the season, both run-trippers coming in the last two games.

Wynn yielded all the Tiger runs before he was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh.

World Boxing Club Accepts U.S. Resignation

PARIS (AP)—The world boxing committee Saturday testily accepted the resignation of the U.S. National Boxing Assn. from its ranks and set up its new list of challengers for titleholders.

Julius Helfand, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, was re-elected president for another one year term.

A statement issued by the committee after the meeting said: "Even if we accept with regret (the NBA) resignation, its contradictory policy cannot be tolerated or accepted as the policy of a responsible organization."

The NBA has been in and out of the world championship committee since it was formed in 1953. It has had a representative at only one of the annual meetings. That was last year when Petronella was present.

The world committee charged that the NBA has consistently disregarded the committee decisions on world title affairs.

The committee will meet to discuss the case of Floyd Patterson, world heavyweight champion, who has not defended his title for nine months.

Gibson Sounds Warning Saturday For Wimbledon

SURBITON, England (AP)—Althea Gibson sounded a warning for Wimbledon Saturday when she crushed her U.S. teammate, Mimi Arnold, 6-1, 6-0 for the women's title in the Surrey Lawn tennis championships. The match lasted only 30 minutes.

Roger Becker won the all-British men's final, defeating Michael Davies 4-6, 6-2, 6-2.

The women's match was a rout. Miss Arnold, 19, of Redwood City, Calif., broke Miss Gibson's service in the first game when the tall New York Negro girl doublefaulted at game point. Then the roof fell in on Mimi.

Althea, winner at Wimbledon last year and the first of her race to do so, proceeded to reel off the next 12 games in a row with a smashing exhibition of tennis. Britons said they'd never seen her better.

Not until the final game did Miss Gibson show any mercy to her five-foot-one, 166-pound opponent. Then, apparently relaxing, the Harlem girl blew five match points before finally ending the contest.

The crowd gave both Americans, members of the U.S. Wightman Cup team, a loud ovation.

Golfers Start Qualifying For Open Berths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sometime Monday a golfer named Lee Mackey Jr., will whack a drive off the tee at the Country Club of Birmingham (Ala.) that should be a significant shot in what likely will be the greatest one-day scramble in all golf history.

The occasion is the annual attempt to qualify for the 162 starting places in the U.S. Open Golf championship at Tulsa, Okla., June 12-14. The sectional rounds will be played Monday at 28 locations throughout the United States and with an all-time record entry total of 2,150, the competition should be fiercer than ever before.

Mackey's role is to illustrate just how tough this competition can be. Eight years ago Lee shot an opening round of 64—a record for the open—over the trying Merion (Pa.) course. The next day his score went into the 80s and he finished in a tie for 25th place as Ben Hogan scored the second of his four great Open triumphs.

Ever since then Mackey has been trying to qualify for another shot at the title and so far he hasn't made it.

One player already has qualified for this year's open and 17 are exempt from the sectional rounds because of their past performances. At Honolulu last Monday Ted Makkalena scored 72-75—147 to top a 15-man field.

That leaves 2,118 golfers competing for 144 qualifying places Sunday—a ratio of about 15 golfers for each place.

Among them are five former champions who no longer are exempt. Gene Sarazen, winner in 1922 and 1932 and now the PGA Senior champion, and dapper Tony Manero, 1936 winner, will be among 140 golfers shooting for nine places at Rye, N. Y. Sam Parks Jr., 1935, and Lew Worshaw, 1947, are in the 82-man Pittsburgh field, where five places are available. Lloyd Mangrum, 1946, will buck the biggest and strongest field of all at Detroit.

Gophers Land Two Players On All-Big-10 Team

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Champion Minnesota landed two players and runner-up Michigan States placed three on the All-Big Ten baseball team announced Saturday by conference coaches.

Third baseman Jack McCartan and right fielder Martin Nelson were the Gopher choices on the first team. The Spartan selections were second baseman Frank Palmaria.

Rounding out the all-star lineup were Bob Lawrence of Indiana, first base; Bob Klaus of Illinois, shortstop; Jim Dickey of Michigan, catcher; Ron Nieman of Wisconsin, left field, and Ron Nischwitz of Ohio State, pitcher.

Klaus was the only repeater from 1957. Palmaria, Nieman and Perranoski were second team picks last year and Nelson a third team choice.

Perranoski had a 5-0 pitching record in conference play, while Nischwitz compiled a 5-1 won-loss mark.

Lawrence batted .472, Look .412 and McCartan .405.

By JOHN CAMPBELL

Coach Isadore "Spin" Salario of Marshall (Chicago) will be the featured speaker at the eighth annual coaching clinic to be held at Macomb Western Illinois U. June 10 and 11. The popular Chicago prep mentor led his team through an unbeaten season and copped the State title beating Rock Falls in the finals for 31 consecutive wins. He is a graduate of Crane Tech high of Chicago and graduated from Chicago Teachers college in 1947 and lettered in basketball.

Coach Chuck Crosby of Canton's Little Giants is optimistic in regard to the 1958-59 cage season with the loss of two regulars, Ethan Blackaby and Jeff Swan. Five outstanding soph. cagers will report to the squad next season including Gary Fox, Dale Harris, Ray Hilton, Gary Kinzer and Larry Wolfe. Crosby stated recently "Teaching in Canton has been a gratifying experience for me. I consider it an honor to teach in a town with so many congenial people. I hold the Canton school system in high esteem and feel privileged to collaborate with such a fine teaching staff. I am extremely fond of the cooperative student body and feel very fortunate to be teaching such well disciplined students."

Ethan Blackaby, Canton's fine fullback and guard in basketball, has received a full scholarship at the U. of Illinois. His father, Immon Blackaby, a grad of Canton high in 1933, went on to captain the Bulldogs of Butler U. in football.

Granite City high is looking for a basketball game for the 1958-59 season on a one or two year contract. The Happy Warriors are interested in getting to play in a Holiday tourney according to Athletic Director Dick Yates. Quincy high will stage a four team Holiday tourney Dec. 19-20 with Springfield high, Fulton and one more team to be announced.

East Moline advanced to the State baseball tourney at Peoria by winning the Canton sectional tourney. Hall of Spring Valley fell 8-5 at the Athletic Park diamond as Dick Lane, star righthander and first baseman, led the East Moline nine. Tuley high of Chicago and Niles (Sikee) are two more teams that will compete in the State meet at Bradley U. June 5-6. Tuley won over Lane Tech 9-2 and meets the Rockford East sectional winner in the opening round at Peoria while Niles, 12-0 winner over Evergreen Park, will meet the winner of the Collinsville tourney.

Jim Plumer of Farmington high placed 8th in the State meet with his pole vaulting ability and he led the Peoria area vaulters. He broke the Ill. loop mark at Morton with 11-4 1/2; broke the Monmouth record at 11 feet and beat Fulton County's mark of 11-8 3/4 which had stood for 28 years. Plumer won the District at Peoria with a 11-4 performance and qualified for the finals at Champaign with an 11-10 jump, an all time record for Farmington high. He is a two year student of Farmington high and a senior, having transferred from Effingham high and lives at Hanna City.

Danville Nine Rated The Team To Beat In Finals

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Undefeated Danville, with a 22-0 record, looms the team to beat in the eight-team finals of the Illinois High School Assn. on the Bradley University diamond Thursday and Friday.

Making their first appearance in the state finals are four teams, Chicago Tuley, Olney, Highland and East Moline. Taylorville, Niles and Maine of Des Plaines round out the field.

A new champion is certain because Niles eliminated the 1957 winner, Proviso of Maywood, in regional play.

Danville, in the finals for the second consecutive year, will rely heavily upon its star pitcher, Steve Kelly. The Maroon ace scored his 11th straight victory when Danville defeated Streator, 4-1, in the Danville sectional.

All games in the finals will be 7 innings.

The schedule (CDT)—Thursday, 10 a.m., Taylorville vs Olney; 12 noon, Chicago Tuley vs Maine; 2 p.m., Danville vs East Moline; and 4 p.m., Niles vs Highland; Friday, 10 a.m., and 12 noon, semifinals; 4 p.m., championship game.

Braves Roll Behind Spahn To Notch 8-3 Victory Over Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Hank Aaron, Ed Mathews and Wes Covington slammed successive home runs in the first inning and the Milwaukee Braves behind Warren Spahn rolled to a 8-3 victory Saturday over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Spahn gained his eighth triumph, the first major league pitcher to win that many games.

The Braves' ace southpaw allowed only eight hits—three of them in the Pirates' 3-run fourth inning — struck out three and walked only one. He also contributed 3 hits to the Braves' 18-hit barrage. Ronnie Kline was the loser, charged with his fourth loss against six victories.

Del Crandall scored what proved to be the winning run in the fourth. He singled to left, advanced to third on a single by Spahn and scored on an infield hit by Felix Mantilla to short.

Attendance Declines For Holiday Twin-Bills

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five doubleheaders drew in excess of 30,000 each but attendance at major league baseball games Memorial Day was nearly 9,500 lower than the turnout on the same 1957 holiday.

The seven twin bills and the single game between the Redlegs and Phillies at Philadelphia Friday drew a total of 229,607. Last Memorial Day, 237,023 saw eight double headers.

The American League, topped by the 39,742 at Yankee Stadium where Washington took two from the league leaders, attracted a total of 117,790. That was decline from last year's 128,325.

The National League, with the Cubs and Dodgers playing to a capacity crowd of 37,799 at Chicago's Wrigley Field, had a total turnout of 111,817 for an increase over 1957 Memorial Day's 108,698.

In addition to the 30,000 plus crowds at New York and Chicago, there were 32,428 at Pittsburgh, 30,461 at St. Louis and 30,411 at Detroit.

The smallest attendance was 11,129 at Philadelphia.

JUNIOR GOLF SET FOR MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The 11th Junior Amateur championship of the U. S. Golf Assn. will be held July 30-Aug. 2 at the University of Minnesota course here. Committee chairman is J. Fred Byers Jr. of Pittsburgh.

The victory followed a torrid pregame clubhouse meeting where it was announced pitcher Don Newcombe had been fined $300 for breaking training rules Friday night after Friday's double loss to the Cubs.

Snider smashed his second homer, first since April 16 at San Francisco, with two out in the third. Then Los Angeles pounded seven hits during a five-run fourth to chase starter Glen Hobbie. It was Hobbie's fifth loss.

The Cubs used a total of five pitchers as the cellar-dwelling Dodgers smashed 15 hits. Veteran Carl Erskine started for the Dodgers but retired in the fifth. Thereafter Kipp was in complete charge.

Five doubleheaders drew in excess of 30,000 each but attendance at major league baseball games Memorial Day was nearly 9,500 lower than the turnout on the same 1957 holiday.

The seven twin bills and the single game between the Redlegs and Phillies at Philadelphia Friday drew a total of 229,607. Last Memorial Day, 237,023 saw eight double headers.

The American League, topped by the 39,742 at Yankee Stadium where Washington took two from the league leaders, attracted a total of 117,790. That was decline from last year's 128,325.

The National League, with the Cubs and Dodgers playing to a capacity crowd of 37,799 at Chicago's Wrigley Field, had a total turnout of 111,817 for an increase over 1957 Memorial Day's 108,698.

In addition to the 30,000 plus crowds at New York and Chicago, there were 32,428 at Pittsburgh, 30,461 at St. Louis and 30,411 at Detroit.

The smallest attendance was 11,129 at Philadelphia.

JUNIOR GOLF SET FOR MINNESOTA

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The 11th Junior Amateur championship of the U. S. Golf Assn. will be held July 30-Aug. 2 at the University of Minnesota course here. Committee chairman is J. Fred Byers Jr. of Pittsburgh.

The victory followed a torrid pregame clubhouse meeting where it was announced pitcher Don Newcombe had been fined $300 for breaking training rules Friday night after Friday's double loss to the Cubs.

Snider smashed his second homer, first since April 16 at San Francisco, with two out in the third. Then Los Angeles pounded seven hits during a five-run fourth to chase starter Glen Hobbie. It was Hobbie's fifth loss.

The Cubs used a total of five pitchers as the cellar-dwelling Dodgers smashed 15 hits. Veteran Carl Erskine started for the Dodgers but retired in the fifth. Thereafter Kipp was in complete charge.

Atty. Colburn Gives Memorial Address After Vets' Parade

An impressive parade by veterans' organizations and an inspiring patriotic address by Attorney Bill Colburn featured the observance of Memorial Day in Jacksonville.

The parade through the business district took place at 11 a. m., followed by the formal program in front of the American Legion Home on West College avenue.

Each veterans' organization marched with its colors in the parade, witnessed by a fair-sized crowd along the streets, which had been almost deserted a half hour before, due to the closing of business for the holiday. Bands of Jacksonville High school and Routh - Our Saviour's schools marched in the parade, with Fred Bailey acting as marshal.

After the marchers and audience formed at the Legion Home, Rev. Clarence S. Bigler of Brooklyn Methodist church called the assembly to order. Commander Gene Young of Jacksonville Post 279 introduced representatives of the participating organizations, after which Attorney Colburn, a veteran of World War II, was presented as speaker.

His Memorial Day remarks were as follows: "I feel very humble today having been asked to speak on this occasion. But I'm also proud to be able to help commemorate Memorial Day, 1938. On this day, I feel that words are hardly adequate to the occasion, but perhaps a few words will help to remind us all of some things we should never forget.

Time To Meditate

"We should all probably spend more time thinking than we actually do. We are so often caught up in the hustle of every day living that we just don't have the time to think. But only through meditation can we keep some sort of perspective on values whether they be spiritual values, material, or human relations.

"So after thinking a bit about today and its significance, don't you believe that most of us usually think of Memorial Day as a day of recognition for those servicemen who gave the supreme sacrifice for you and me? I believe that is the popular conception of the purpose of Memorial Day.

Now let's ask ourselves if this is what we want. Of course, we want to give recognition for those who died for us, but what recognition? Is a parade with uniforms, flags and a little speech making enough? I don't believe so. I think it is important but not enough. No, we owe far more to those who have made it possible for us to live in a free country and enjoy the benefits of democracy than a one day celebration a year. Don't you think that what those Americans who died for our flag really deserve, is for each and every citizen of the United States to strive every day to uphold the ideals for which so many have died? To continue to safeguard the freedom of the people of the United States and to never quit trying to improve upon our standards, not only in the sense of higher standards of economic well-being but to continue to preserve and improve upon our moral standards as well.

"Each Must Do Part"

"In order to assure those whom we are here to honor today that they have not died in vain, each of us must do our part daily as a citizen of the United States of America. Only by doing this every day will we give the recognition deserved by the ones we honor today. Let's not set Memorial Day aside tomorrow, but rather keep the spirit of Memorial Day with us and a part of us everyday. If it means that we have to sacrifice a bit of our leisure time to perform a civic function for our community which we all know will be good for society and help improve our society, let's do it. For after all, is that a sacrifice or is it a privilege?

"All Must Guard Freedom"

"Many people would give anything for the privilege of living in a free society where individuals can participate in community affairs and help make decisions which affect their everyday lives. As in all things of real value, so freedom is an ideal that we must never take for granted, but one we must always guard and strive to maintain. Just living in the geographical boundaries of the United States is not enough, but we all should strive to be better citizens than we were yesterday, and by so doing will we give those who died for us the recognition they so richly deserve, God Bless Them All."

PHILIP S. CLARY

Clary, 37, is an active pilot and has taught general science at Jacksonville high school for the past six years. He has a plane based at the airport.

He was a captain in the air force, a B-24 bomber pilot on 35 missions in the European theatre. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal and Purple Heart.

The new airport board member received a bachelor of science degree from Western Illinois university and a master's in educational administration from the University of Illinois. He and his wife, Geraldine, live at 102 Spaulding Place.

Other board members are Lee Sullivan, Fred Wharton, Loren Moody and Merle Ingle.

Need 300 Donors For Bloodmobile June 5-6

First-time blood donors must turn out in large numbers if Morgan county is to meet its 300-pint quota for the Bloodmobile visit June 5 and 6 at the Masonic Temple from noon until 6:00 p. m. Summertime Bloodmobile visits most always fail to meet the set quotas. It is a busy time for farmers who are faithful, repeat donors in more slack seasons. Many other regular donors are vacation-bound or incapacitated by seasonal allergies, poison ivy, etc. Inevitably, some old-time regular donors are lost to the Morgan County Blood Bank through removal to other counties, illness or death.

"Recruiting a lot more first-time donors is the only way you can hope to meet the quota," remarked Miss Oberstein, Field Representative for the St. Louis Regional Blood Center at a recent Bloodmobile Committee meeting here. "The same problem is facing almost all communities participating in the National Red Cross Blood Program."

"Without doubt there are thousands of people who have never given blood in the program. Probably the main reason they have not given is that they have not been informed of the continuing need for blood. The story must be told again and again, and it is

Ivan Garrison Addresses Winchester Eighth Grade

WINCHESTER—Ivan K. Garrison, director of special services of the Jacksonville public schools, gave the address at eighth grade promotion Thursday evening at the Winchester High School. The graduates were from the grade schools of Community Unit School District No. 1, Winchester, Manchester and Alsely.

Mr. Garrison's address was entitled "Four To Go On." The four were to work on, to play on, to pray on and to grow on. He expressed the hope that the students would grow mentally, morally, emotionally and socially, that they could in the future choose the right path over the wrong.

The speaker was introduced by I. L. Kimmel, unit superintendent, who also presented the graduates. The American Legion awards were made by Judge Byron E. Koch of Winchester Post 442. Barbara Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and Ronnie Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Robinson were chosen to receive the awards from the Winchester School.

Wanda Jean Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bowman and Gordon Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Almer Day, were winners from the Alsely School. The awards from the Manchester Post 751 were presented to Sarah Andras, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Andras and Patricia Reardon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Reardon.

Diplomas were presented by Fred T. Thady, president of the Board of Education of the unit. The invocation and benediction were given by Rev. Roy Goodell, Soft Ball League.

The soft ball games between the teams of the Winchester and neighboring churches will commence with the Winchester Methodist team playing the Winchester Christian church team at 9 o'clock, Monday, June 2.

Other games are scheduled as follows: Tuesday, June 3, at 9 o'clock, Winchester Baptist vs. Lynville Methodist; Thursday, June 5, at 9 o'clock, Alsely-Pleasant Hill vs. Barrow Baptist; Friday, June 6, at 9 o'clock, Lynville Christian vs. Murrayville Methodist.

Cars Damaged On N. Church Street

A 1933 Pontiac driven by Zeila Leach, 141 Caldwell street, was considerably damaged Friday when it collided with a parked car in the 300 block on North Church street. The parked car, belonging to Manuel Darush, 301 North Church street, also was damaged.

Capt. Howard Stout and Patrolman Fred Spain went to the place of the accident and compiled a report. The Leach car, which had damage to the right front fender, right door, radiator and bumper, was towed to the Brunnett garage. Darush's car received damage to the left front fender, tail light and bumper.

Midget Auto Races

The Winchester Kiwanis club midget auto race season will get under way at the race track located in the east end of the Monument Park next Wednesday, June 4 at eight o'clock p. m. (DST). Race night has been changed to Wednesday this year instead of Thursday as in previous years in order to fit in with the Little League baseball schedules.

Nine cars will be in the field to start the season with a possibility of one or two cars to be added at a later date. Ronnie Weldy a veteran driver of the past four seasons will be back, together with Roger Yeager, Walter Wassell, Roger Bonnett, Norman Staff and Roy Freed. Several new drivers will make their appearance at the track this year. Paul Evans, who drove the Hank Lawshe entry during the 1936 season will drive the Eddie Graham entry this year. Lloyd Yeager will have his two cars back and his brother Floyd Yeager will have a brand new car to start Wednesday night. Nate Robertson is another new owner to get into the lineup this season. Other cars which have raced at the local track and which will see action this year are owned by Kenneth Bonnett, William Staff, Dannie Rose and Eddie Graham.

The Dannie Rose entry, driven by Roy Freed is the holder of the track record set last year September 5, 1938, the last night of the racing season, turning the one-tenth mile track in 10.8 seconds and this car will be back to give the other drivers plenty of competition.

R. R. Funk is chairman of the Kiwanis committee in charge of these races and boy between the ages of 11 and 17 years inclusive who is interested in entering a car, either built by himself or by some sponsor should contact Mr. Funk at Winchester.

Mrs. Lucille Walker of Oak Park, Ill., arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rusak.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coultas of Moline visited over the holiday weekend with his sister, Mrs. Loretta Glossop, Mrs. Coultas and Mrs. Glossop attend alumni day at MacMurray College Saturday.

Miss Arlene Cloyd entertained the senior girls of the high school at a party at her home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ann Spaulding of Morganfield, Ky., is here for the weekend with her sister-in-law, Mrs. B. F. Walker and family.

Mrs. Ethel Shibe of California was a visitor in Winchester with friends on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Danner and family of Mt. Carmel, Ill., visited here over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Danner and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. McLaughlin.

George, Sr., Alfred and George H. Musch, Jr., of Arenzville, Mo. and Mrs. Lawrence Wegheoff, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wegheoff of Concord, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wegheoff of Jacksonville, Ill., attended the funeral service of Mr. Fred Wegheoff of Indianapolis, Ind., Wednesday.

Mr. Wegheoff was a cousin of Mrs. Mary Musch and an uncle of the Wegheoff brothers. He was 86 years old. Five sons and four daughters and a brother, Herman, survive, along with 14 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

Patient Hides In Closet At Apartments

Mrs. Hilda Miller, 1144 South Main street, got a surprise when she went to the broom closet in the basement of her home early Thursday evening. There was a man in it!

Mrs. Miller ran out of the basement and called Carl Moon, who also resides in the four-family apartment residence. Moon immediately locked the basement door.

Within a few seconds a basement window opened and a man crawled out, running south on Main street pursued by Moon who attracted attention of State Trooper Hamilton, passing in a patrol car. Hamilton and Moon nabbed the fugitive and learned that he was an escapee from Jacksonville State hospital, one block south of the apartment house.

Patrolmen Brune and Chapman responded to the call from the police station. The officers took the patient back to the hospital. He is believed to have been in the broom closet from about noon until after 6 p. m.

Jerry Henly Is Hurt In Motor Scooter Accident

A Jacksonville high school student, 14-year-old Jerry Henly, was injured Thursday afternoon when his motor scooter hit a hole in the road leading to Lake Jacksonville. The impact threw him from the vehicle, which landed on top of him.

Jerry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Henly, 911 West College avenue, suffered a painful injury to his right leg, skin burns and abrasions.

The Henly boy was accompanied by two friends also on motor scooters, Bucky Marsh and Kenneth Coffman. Marsh and Coffman asked for help from residents in the area and Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Coufal responded and took the injured boy to his home. He was taken to Passavant hospital for treatment and then returned to his home.

Jerry will be laid up for several weeks and on crutches for an indefinite time. The leg injury was on the inside of his right ankle and was bone deep.

She and some of the members of her family were charter members of the Hugoton Christian church.

An infant son preceded her in death and her husband died in 1930.

She leaves two sons, Everett Phillips of Hugoton, Kan., and Ernest Phillips of Seattle, Wash.; two daughters, Mrs. Ruby Flower of Kingsville, Texas, and Mrs. Jesse Hinkle of Roodhouse. There are ten grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle have recently returned from Hugoton, Kan., where they attended the funeral services and burial.

Mrs. Bersig Dies Saturday At ISD; Funeral Monday

Mrs. Stella Chittick Bersig, Ashland, employee the past 11 years at the Illinois School for the Deaf, was found dead in her bed at the school Saturday morning.

Mrs. Bersig was born in Morgan County Aug. 2, 1887, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Walker of Ashland. She was married in Springfield in 1908 to Henry Bersig who preceded her in death.

Two children survive, Mrs. Charles Aggett of Ashland and Roland Glenn of East St. Louis, Ill. There are two grandchildren. Three brothers survive, John Walker of Ashland and Glenn and Frank Walker, both living in Los Angeles, Calif.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Ashland Baptist church with the Rev. Wayne Brackett officiating. Burial will be in the Yatesville cemetery southwest of Ashland.

The body is at the Gainer funeral home.

Tornadoes Sighted Across Midwest -- Heavy Rain, Winds

Jacksonville Civil Defense received its first emergency alert at 9:48 p. m. last night as Auxiliary police, Ground Observer Corps and mobile amateur radio units sprang into action.

Funnel shaped clouds were sighted north of Jacksonville in the Chandlerville area when Civil Defense director Dr. Vincent T. J. Lenth ordered the local alert. Sustained whistle blasts from the School for the Deaf, Jacksonville State Hospital, Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School and J. Capps and Sons alerted local residents for an approaching tornado.

Beyer Airlines reported that winds as high as 45 miles per hour buffeted the city about 10:30 p. m., and later subsided to "normal."

The immediate storm area was given as northeast Morgan, southeast Cass and Sangamon counties.

Local Damage Slight Damage in the Jacksonville area was confined to a large tree falling at 1137 Elm Street which blocked the street and pulled utility wires down. Another wire at the corner of Reid Street and Fayette was reported sparking but no damage resulted. Several residents reported awnings either torn or bent by wind.

Several residents took heed of the warning and took cover in their basements. Temperatures dropped about 20 degrees in only a few minutes.

Matanza Beach Hit Matanza Beach, near Havana, was in the path of a violent wind and rain storm. Falling trees blocked Route 78 north of Chandlerville for more than an hour as workmen and highway crews fought to keep the road clear of power lines and dangerous trees.

Several summer homes were damaged by wind and falling trees in the summer resort area. Heavy damage was also reported north of Havana in the Quiver Beach area.

Ashland Without Power Ashland was without power nearly an hour as wind and rain caused power lines to break. Damage to the city was reported as minor as the storm skirted the area to the north. Trees were broken and power lines cut but property damage was kept to a minimum.

State Police Headquarters central radio station was put off the air for more than an hour as power lines fell in the Springfield area.

State Civil Defense Headquarters in Springfield acted as a filter center for the alert. Information was supplied by local units throughout the storm area.

Virginia Reports Lightning In Virginia, residents reported an electrical storm which began about 9 p. m. Heavy rains and high winds accompanied the storm. Lights began blinking and then went completely out, leaving the city in complete darkness for forty-five minutes. Residents sat in darkness listening to the wind roaring outside. Trees obscured vision so that tornado sighting could not be confirmed. No property damage was reported and no one hurt.

All telephone communications to Virginia and north as far as Havana were out as late as one o'clock Sunday morning.

Phone Lines Flooded A constant deluge of telephone calls began pouring into the offices of the Journal Courier and Telephone Companies almost while the whistles were still sounding. Telephone calls at both places were tied up answering calls from alarmed residents.

Police headquarters were swamped with calls asking what all the whistles were about. The Jacksonville fire department answered fifteen calls on the fire phone within minutes as ill-informed residents tied up emergency lines. The information phone at the fire house was busy constantly.

Civil Defense director Dr. Lenth reported that telephones were needlessly tied up by inquiring citizens who would have known what the whistle blasts meant if they had read the papers or listened to the radio when the civil defense system was explained previously.

1. THE ALERT—This will consist of a long continuous blast of three to five minutes duration. When you hear this signal, look around and see where you will take shelter. Be prepared to take shelter when you hear the next signal.

2. TAKE COVER—This signal consists of a series of staccato blasts of three to five minutes duration. When you take cover be sure to place yourself as far away from plate glass or other windows as possible. In the home, venetian blinds should be closed and curtains drawn. If the room is occupied these act as a buffer against shattering glass. Do not stand in front of windows.

3. ALL CLEAR—This consists of three short blasts. When these are heard proceed your normal activities. What you do and how you do it, what you do and how you think may serve as a life saving measure to you in the future.

Please do not flood your telephone exchange with calls. Tune in your local radio station. Dr. Lenth said "I am very well satisfied with the organization of the Civil Defense workers in Jacksonville. Their response has been excellent during this alert."

Off-duty police and firemen reported for duty and street crews and linemen were out clearing damage before the all-clear warning was sounded.

State, County and City police officers were stationed in various spots throughout the county and gave information to the civil defense workers in the local filter center.

More than 200 persons cleared the park dance when the storm warning was sounded without incident.

All Clear Sounded The all-clear was sounded at 11:58 p. m. Saturday night ending an alert which lasted nearly two hours.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS A tornado and violent thunderstorms lashed parts of northern Illinois late Saturday, felling trees and utility lines and dumping more than an inch of rain at some points.

At least two persons were injured. The tornado swooped down in an open field five miles west of Freeport in northwestern Illinois and leveled a barn before hitting.

Violet Morhardt, 8, of Freeport, suffered severe leg cuts when blown off the front porch of her home while opening a door during the height of the storm. She was hospitalized.

Pinned Beneath Tree Also hospitalized was Clifford Miller, 39, a Freeport city employee who was injured when caught beneath a falling tree.

Harrison, a community of about 400 persons northeast of Freeport, was isolated for hours. Wind-felled trees, blocked highways and power lines were downed.

No one in the community was reported injured. Chicago was darkened by storm clouds in the late afternoon and some basements were reported flooded from sudden downpours which ranged up to about .40 of an inch.

Hits Northern Illinois Morrison in northern Illinois near the Mississippi River reported some damage from strong winds and hail. Violent winds struck Rock Creek Lake near Newton, Iowa, overturning several boats and causing loss of life.

The body was recovered and authorities said by late afternoon occupants of four capsize boats apparently were unaccounted for. The Powershiek County sheriff's office said estimates of the number who perished ranged from two up to as high as 15. But the sheriff's office stressed these were merely estimates.

Drag Lake Sheriff's crews and volunteers from half a dozen counties joined in dragging the lake. They were interrupted when a second storm passed over. With the coming of darkness authorities said dragging probably would not be resumed until morning.

Iowa was worst hit by the storm which swept east through northern Illinois into Wisconsin, Rains pelted Missouri and Kansas. Winds up to 80 m.p.h. lashed Des Moines, Fort Dodge and Dubuque. Hailstones up to eight inches in circumference pelted the Osceola area after a torrential three-inch rain.

Home Bureau Activities

GLASGOW—The Glasgow Unit of the Morgan-Scott Home Bureau met in the home of Mrs. Clarence Adams on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The chairman, Mrs. Charles Roper, presided. The pledge to the flag was given followed by the song of the month, "When You Were A Tulip." Roll call was answered by nine members. The major lesson, "Household Pests," was given by Mrs. Everett Hester and the selected subject, "Art Appreciation," by Mrs. Oma Edwards.

Recreation was in charge of Mrs. Clarence Wilson.

Mrs. Roper called attention to the following dates: June 17, at 1:15 p.m. Mrs. Henry Boester will give the radio program over WLDS, June 17, Play Day at Park in Jacksonville, June 25, District meeting at the Baptist church in Winchester. At this meeting the Winchester Day Unit will entertain the Glasgow and Bluffs Day Units. All three units will use this date for regular meetings.

The July meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Charles Jones. This is 4-H Local Achievement.

The Progressive Unit of Home Bureau met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Aldo Hierman. There were about a dozen members present.

Mrs. Hierman read a clipping "What Is a Mother?" and followed it with a short biography of John Payne. Then all sang Payne's famous song, "Home, Sweet Home."

Mrs. Raymond Scott had the major lesson, "Household Pests," and led discussion afterward. The selected subject, "Art Appreciation," was given by Mrs. Charles Schmitt.

Roll call was answered by naming a picture liked by that member.

Plans were made for the district meeting which will be June 6 in the Meredosia grade school.

Mrs. Minnie Steinberg and Mrs. Henry Schroeder conducted a period of recreation before the meeting adjourned.

WESTERN 4-H CAMP TO OPEN JUNE 16

The Western Illinois 4-H camp at Lake Jacksonville will open July 16 for the summer season. The young 4-H members of Morgan county, those 10-13 years old will camp the week of June 23-27. The older group will be there July 7-11.

This year the camping fee will be $13. Registration and physical examination blanks are now available at the county extension office in the Farm Bureau. The Junior group must complete these forms and pay the fee by June 16. The older members must do the same by June 30.

Morgan county friends of William J. Kuhfuss, 46-year-old Mackinaw farmer, were congratulating him last week upon his election as president of the Illinois Agricultural Association.

He succeeds Otto Steffey of Stronghurst, who died suddenly on May 15. Edwin Gumm of Galesburg was chosen vice president. He had been a member of the IAA board since 1946.

Kuhfuss is well known in west central Illinois. He was last at Jacksonville when he presided at a district policy committee meeting held at Farm Bureau hall in February.

He is a quiet-spoken man, tall, well-built and weighing around 210 pounds. His brown crew-cut hair is beginning to gray.

Kuhfuss and his brother operate an 800-acre Tazewell county grain and livestock farm. He graduated from Illinois State U. in 1934 with a bachelor's degree in education. He is married and has four children: Karen, 17; Linda, 16; Thad, 13; and John, 8.

Beef Cattle Men

An enthusiastic breeder of Angus cattle, he is known by all purebred Angus fanciers in this area.

In his home community he has served as a member of the Tazewell county fair board, the Junior Community high school board, Minor Consolidated grade school board and the Tazewell county extension council.

Before his election as IAA vice president in November, 1956, he had served as vice president and president of the Tazewell County Farm Bureau. He was also a member of the board of directors of the Tazewell County Service Company.

Also before he became vice president of the IAA he was a strong advocate of the proposal to move the state offices from Chicago to some downstate location. This proposition was finally ratified by voting delegates meeting in Springfield last March.

On Important Committees

In November, 1957, he was re-elected unanimously by the IAA's 519 delegates at the annual meeting held in Chicago. During his year and a half as vice president he served as chairman of the important resolutions committee, and as chairman of the finance and investment committees of the board of directors. He also headed a special study committee which discussed the work of young people in Farm Bureau.

In addition to his position as president of the IAA, Kuhfuss also becomes president of Country Mutual Insurance Company and Country Life Insurance Company.

Marie Ranson Is Hostess To Arnold Bureau

Mrs. Marie Ranson entertained the Arnold Home Bureau Unit Wednesday, May 21 at her home east of the city.

Mrs. Minnie Steinberg and Mrs. Henry Schroeder conducted a period of recreation before the meeting adjourned.

A new member, Mrs. Nancy McDaniel was welcomed into the unit. The major lesson, Household Pests, was given by Mrs. Bernard Lahey. Highlights of the board meeting included "Play Day" which is a picnic dinner to be held at 12:30 June 17 at Nichols park. A hair styling show June 23rd at the Odd Fellows Hall at 2 p.m. an open meeting was also announced.

Mrs. James Baxter attended a meeting on recreation and gave several interesting games that will be used at meetings. After the song, "When You Were A Tulip," Mrs. John Clegg gave the selected subject, "Art Appreciation."

The next meeting will be a district meeting at the Farm Bureau Hall June 18. Guest units will be Jersey College and Jacksonville Day.

Arenzville F.H.A. Names New Officers

ARENZVILLE—The May meeting of the Arenzville F.H.A. was held the 19th at the high school gym. The meeting was opened with the official F.H.A. opening ceremony conducted by the president, Roberta Hierman.

Following the opening ceremony the Home Ec girls presented a style show, modeling garments which they had made either as a home project or a school project.

The girls modeling were Margaret Ginder, Sielen Stiltz, Carolyn Maschmeyer, Esther Carls, Brenda Bartelheim, Donna Siaske, Alice Alexander, Myra Lovekamp, Hazel Hendricker, Carol Lovekamp, Patsy Robinson, Eleanor Brasell, Janet Dahman, and Kristine Natemeyer.

Following the style show the junior girls honored the senior girls by giving a skit entitled "This Is Your Life." Several incidents in each senior girls life were told.

The main point of the evening was the installation of officers.

4-H Club Activities

MEREDOSIA—On May 26 the Merry Doshans met at the high school in the home economics room. There were twenty-four members; one new member; two guests; Barbara Lamsink, the junior leader; and Mrs. Wayne Hammit and Mrs. W. G. Steinberg, leaders, present.

Patsy Schlicher called the meeting to order and led in giving the 4-H pledge. Mrs. Steinberg called attention to the dates for camping this summer. It was decided that roll call next Monday will be answered by naming one's favorite color. Pamela Battefeld, Carol Dungey and Audrey Dummire will serve refreshments on June 2.

Patsy's talk was "Things to remember in cooking vegetables." Gloria McDaniel told about "What makes a good breakfast." Carol Potter mixed butterscotch cookies for her demonstration.

Mrs. Steinberg showed the girls taking "You Learn to Sew" a small-sized gathered skirt on which she had sewed all the lines of stitching called for in the book. Mrs. Hammit asked the girls taking "You Learn to Bake" to make drop cookies before the next meeting. She appointed four girls to bring two cookies each to the next meeting to be judged by the other members on June 2.

Rita Summers, Marcia Taylor and Teresa Whitte served cookies and punch.

The Murrayville Merry Maids 4-H Club met May 15 in the school cafeteria. Carla Heaton presided during the session.

Sandy Baptist gave a talk on "Good Table Manners." Dixie Manker, "White Sauce," Lela Leather, "The Cloth You Sew," Wanda Crow, "How to Keep Fires from Starting," Carol Grimsley, "The Raising of Dough."

Mary Davenport showed the group how to fringe and Mary Andras showed the different designs in cloth.

The next meeting will be held in the school lunch room June 4.

The Asbury 4-H club meeting was held May 24 at the home of Mrs. W. C. Carter according to Malinda Cockran, reporter. Judy Davies, president of the club, presided at the meeting.

Talks included Harriet Brewer, "If the Cloth Will Not Tear," Carol Adams, "The Sewing Machine," Connie Spaenhowser, "Things To Do Before You Sew Your Garment," Judy Davies, "Fit Your Pattern Carefully," Ruth Adams, "Buying Your Pattern and Cloth," Phyllis Allen, "Stephen Foster."

Susan Ryan, "Sticking Cloth," Joyce Lane, "You Make Your Scarf," Nancy Robinson, "The Tools You Use."

A demonstration was given by Malinda Cockran, "Mark the Fringe of Your Scarf."

Roll call was answered by what was learned in sewing and cooking.

The next meeting will be held June 14 at the home of Mrs. W. C. Carter. Refreshments were served by Connie Spaenhowser and Judy Davies.

The Peaceful Prairie 4-H Club met May 9 at the home of Carol and Connie Brickley.

Mrs. Andras checked the project books and gave Outdoor Meals books to the members. The coming bake sale was discussed. Carol Brickley gave a talk on outdoor meals and Clover Dobson told of the different kinds of outdoor meals.

Carol Ann Lawson showed the group how to set a dining table. The next meeting will be held June 5 at Linda Boes' home.

RURAL YOUTH PLANS WHITE ELEPHANT SALE

Carman Y. Potter will give a short history of auctioneering when the Morgan County Rural Youth meets at Farm Bureau hall Thursday at 8:30 p.m.

Later Potter will be the auctioneer at a white elephant sale.

Dainty refreshments were served, and a social hour was enjoyed.

Indian Creek Club Meets

A meeting of the Indian Creek 4-H club was held on May 14, at the Legion and Community hall at 8:00 p.m. There were 10 members present and the leader, Glen Lovekamp.

Talks were given by Carl Blisch-off on "Safety On The Road," and Eleanor Ruckman spoke on "Block Printing." Refreshments were served by Stanley and Janet Stock.

The next meeting will be held on June 13.

MCF Meets At Park

The Arenzville Methodist Couples Fellowship met Sunday, May 18 at the Beardsdon park. During the afternoon boat rides were enjoyed, and a barbecue and potluck supper were held in the evening.

Following the meal a short business meeting was held, and officers were elected as follows: president, John Crawford; vice president, Clyde Ginder; secretary and treasurer, Jean Greer; reporter, Irene Peck; entertainment, Norman Greer.

The hosts were Rev. and Mrs. Robert Birdsell and David, and others attending were Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford and Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Greer, Sandra and Terry; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ginder, Roger and Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mattes and Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin, Sharon, Mike, Reggie, Randy, and Peggy; Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, Steve and Patty; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clark, Debbie and Becky.

The next meeting will be held June 15 at Nichols Park, Jacksonville.

This Week.. at Dixon Springs

Strange things are happening on the Station today — strange, but all for the sake of learning more about livestock. With hundreds of acres of pasture of all descriptions, it is a strange sight to see 44 yearling steers on a concrete feeding floor, eating a grain ration from self-feeders.

Meat Quality Inheritance

But there is a good reason, as Station Superintendent Bob Webb explains it. These steers are by 11 different sires, four from each sire. Among the answers we hope to get are how important inheritance is to amount of lean red meat, to meat quality, to internal and external fattening of meat, to dressing percentage and to meat flavor. The plan is to feed these steers on the Station until they approach 1,000 pounds in weight. Then they will be moved to Urbana so that the meat researchers can slaughter each steer on the day he reaches a weight of 1,000 pounds.

Forced Orphans

Spring lambs on pasture without their mothers at this time of year are an unusual sight to the Station visitor, but an even stranger sight is to see weaned spring lambs in drylot on feed. Jack Lewis, sheep researcher, is checking some theories and reports of former experience in early weaning. Jack weaned two lots of lambs and put one lot on feed in drylot and the other on feed on pasture. To counter-check, he has three lots of unweaned lambs, one on pasture without the creep and one in drylot on feed. The last group are separated from their grazing mothers in the daytime only. In this lot, as the pasture gate is opened in the evening, the ewes stream in like a bunch of dairy cows to spend the night in the shed with their nursing lambs.

We will be able to give you the results of this trial later.

Grain Sorghum Varieties

Two years of grain sorghum variety trials on the Station have sifted RS610, Frontier 390, and Frontier 490 to the top of the heap. DeKalb D50a has been a good yielder along with the hybrids mentioned above, but because it is a foot taller it is less resistant to lodging. For more information on grain sorghums, ask for U. I. Department of Agronomy mimeograph AG-1785 "Grain Sorghum Variety Trials in Illinois, 1956-1957."

INSIDE JOB

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—Warrant officer Norman Lyon complained to police that someone took some military vehicles joy-riding—inside the National Guard Armory. Lyon found skid marks on the armory floor.

University of Illinois agricultural economists emphasize that farm prices are high now because supplies of livestock, fresh fruits and vegetables and eggs are lower than they were a year ago. When increased supplies of farm products come to market this year, price reductions can be expected.

"New Herbicides" Make Short Work Of Lawn Weeds

by Harleigh Kemmerer
Landscape Gardening Specialist

URBANA—Lawn seeds can easily be killed with weed killers.

Often called herbicides, most weed killers will work best if they are applied when the weeds are small and growing actively. If the weather is hot and dry and the weeds have been allowed to grow, they can resist weed killers because they will not readily absorb the poison into the cell sap. Also, killing large weeds exposes bare ground that will fill with new weeds after the first rain.

Herbicide mixtures can be applied that will kill most crabgrass and broadleaf weeds, such as plantain, curled dock, dandelion and henbit. If the lawn is treated by mid-June, apply a mixture of 2-4-D and PMA (phenyl mercuric acetate). Both are available under trade names. Follow directions on the container. If there are no directions, use four tablespoons of 10 percent PMA and two tablespoons of an amine salt of 2-4-D in two gallons of water.

Three Applications Needed

This mixture will treat 1,000 square feet of lawn. The first treatment will not kill all the crabgrass. A second and third application of the PMA will therefore be needed at weekly intervals.

If preferred, potassium cyanate (KOCN) can be used in place of the PMA. Use four tablespoons of two gallons of water to treat 1,000 square feet of lawn. If crabgrass isn't present in a lawn, use 2-4-D alone. Apply this mixture at any time. MCPA can also be used in place of 2-4-D and at the same rate. If crabgrass is the only problem, the PMA or KOCN can also be used separately.

Disodium methyl arsenate applied at the rate of two ounces per 1,000 square feet of lawn will kill crabgrass in July and August. Two applications at weekly intervals are needed.

Wedge lawn grasses, such as nimble will, quackgrass and orchard grass, can be killed with spot treatments of dalapon or TCA. Use 1/4 pound of dalapon or 1/2 pound of TCA in one gallon of water. Since both of these herbicides will kill all the grass, it is important to treat only the undesirable grasses. A sponge attached to a wooden handle works well, or you can use a small syringe.

Individual Doses

If only a few broadleaf weeds are present, use a localized treatment of five ounces of an amine salt of 2-4-D to one gallon of water to treat the plants. Slip a cloth glove over a rubber glove, and merely rub the wet glove over the foliage of the weed. With wild onion, grab the base of the plant and let the hand slide across the foliage.

But remember that just getting rid of weeds will not make a beautiful lawn. Weeds appear only when grass in a lawn is not doing well. So fertilize your lawn in the early spring and fall. Do not clip closer than 1 1/2 inches. When watering, soak the soil to a depth of six inches. By following these practices, you can eliminate most weed problems without spraying.

4-H FEDERATION TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Morgan County 4-H Federation will meet at Farm Bureau hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday, announcing Bob Hayward, Jr., assistant farm adviser.

The delegates will make plans for the Share-The-Fun contest to be held at Jonathan Turner school on June 20 and the speech contest to be held at Farm Bureau hall on July 2.

Other items to be considered include the county demonstrations school on June 11 and the demonstrations contest on July 16.

Illinois Farmers Outlook Letter

LIVESTOCK PRICES TO DECLINE, SAYS USDA

Recent prices of livestock were the highest in several years. This week we quote explanations and forecast from a recent publication of the USDA.

"The price strength was due to a combination of (1) delayed marketings for slaughter following big feed crops, and (2) a withholding of breeding stock for herd expansion. Because of these factors, which were true of all three species, livestock slaughter in January-April averaged about 9 per cent below 1957. Also, demand for meat has held up well, despite some decline in employment and consumer income.

"The delay in marketings is temporary and will end soon. By late April lamb and hog slaughter had climbed above last year, and it will be moderately above throughout the second half of 1958. Fed cattle are expected to increase further in late spring, and they too will probably exceed a year earlier in the second half.

Small Declines Expected

"These upturns in supply will bring some reductions in prices. But the drop is not expected to be great, chiefly because continued withholding of breeding stock will prevent large changes in supply. Increases in . . . (numbers) . . . during 1958 will be fairly sizable for hogs and sheep. The . . . (numbers) . . . of cattle on farms might increase slightly . . . (this year) . . . and if this occurs it will end the cyclical decline after two years, the shortest on record.

"Prices of hogs may remain fairly steady until mid-summer, when they normally are highest, then decline. Their total fall reduction will not be large, as the expected increase of 5 to 6 per cent in the 1958 spring pig crop . . . (was) . . . largely confined to December-February. . . By late fall hog prices will probably not be far below the lowest price received last fall.

"The 1958 fall pig crop may increase 7 to 10 per cent, and when marketed in the spring of 1959 will bring considerably lower prices than this spring. But prices probably will still be favorable in relation to prices of corn, and profitable to most hog producers. There is more danger of a severe price decline for hogs farrowed in the spring of 1959 than for those of this fall.

"Rising prices for hogs the past year continue a record of great price variability. Since the end of the war, prices to producers have successfully advanced to more than $27.00, declined below $15.00, advanced again to above $26.00, declined to $19.60, and have now risen to more than $26.00.

Unwanted By All

"These variations are damaging to producers, marketers and consumers, all of whom desire more stability in both supply and price. One of the goals of the hog industry, as of the cattle industry, should be to reduce the amplitude of cyclical swings."

To Hold Stock Judging Contest In Scott Monday

Scott county will hold a 4-H and FFA Livestock Judging contest Monday, June 2, according to Dale Hewitt, Scott county farm adviser. The contest will start at 9 a.m. at the Robert Worrell farm northeast of Winchester. All 4-H and FFA members of Scott county are asked to assemble there to judge two rings of dairy heifers. Beef cattle, hogs and sheep will be judged at the farms of Joe Warrell, Howard Hurrelbrink, Junior Kallischnee and Marvin Tholen during the morning.

Herb Wendler, Pike county farm adviser, will be the judge for the event, along with the local county vocational agriculture teachers and the farm adviser.

The Scott county judging contest committee, composed of Harold Morris as chairman, Gary Hurrelbrink and Marvin Tholen, has planned the county event and is responsible for having a livestock judging contest in the county for the first time in several years.

ANNUAL WHEAT DAY AT ROYAL OAKES FARM JUNE 10

Tuesday, June 10, will be Royal Oakes Wheat Day in Bluffs. The session will begin at the plots on the Oakes' farm just north of Bluffs at 1:30 p.m., daylight time.

As usual, interested wheat producers from a large number of counties in west central Illinois are expected to be present.

W. O. Scott, crops specialist at the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, will discuss the merits and demerits of various varieties of wheat grown in this area and Oakes will tell the characteristics of each variety, its resistance to disease and past yields over the years when grown in Scott county.

There are five new varieties in the plot. Crocker, LaPort, Racine, Todd and Illinois 53-B18, reports Dale A. Hewitt, Scott county farm adviser.

Tito's Defiance

The Western world hasn't had much to smile about lately, what with revolts and crises popping up in many places. Thus it can read with some comfort the fact that history is repeating itself in Yugoslavia.

Ten years after Marshal Tito told the mighty Stalin to go jump in the Black Sea, he is telling off Nikita Khrushchev.

It was Khrushchev, remember, who wanted to let bygones be bygones. He humbled himself sufficiently to visit Tito in Belgrade, where great effort was undertaken to patch up the bitter Kremlin-Yugoslav quarrel.

Slowly but surely thereafter it seemed that Khrushchev's policy was working, that Tito was being drawn back into the Soviet bloc. It reached the point where most Western statesmen grew disillusioned over Tito's alleged maintenance of an independent status.

But they reckoned without their unwitting ally, the Kremlin. The new Russian rulers perhaps discovered afresh what Stalin had known all along, that a totalitarian system can't operate on a "let's all go our own way" basis. Khrushchev toughly told Tito to get in line or else.

But that kind of talk is exactly what led him to defy Stalin a decade ago. He snapped back that he was bowing to nobody's ultimatum, never had, never would.

Khrushchev, possibly chagrined and puzzled at the failure of his sweet-talk policy, finds himself adopting tactics just like Stalin's in answer to Tito's defiance. The economic squeeze is on. Russia may try to seal Yugoslavia off from the rest of the Communist orbit.

For those who insist on imagining that Soviet communism can ever be less than total dictatorship, this reversion to the circumstances and attitudes of 1948 should afford illuminating instruction.

As for Tito, by his swing through this cycle he has demonstrated that he is a firmly committed Communist who would like to be friendly with other Communist nations but simply will not knuckle under to them.

Thus, despite all appearances of the last year or so, he is by the final test independent of subservience to the domineering Kremlin.

Whether this entitles him to any new aid from the West, should he need it, is something we perhaps must debate carefully. In any event, it is welcome news to learn once more that Tito is not a Kremlin lackey who would do Moscow's bidding in time of crisis.

In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It was sad to watch Sid Caesar close his third-TV series this week.

Sad, because Sid, Imogene Coca, Carl Reiner and Howard Morris have provided many of the most delightful moments in the brief history of television.

Yet the show has faded, sinking another nail into the coffin of comedy on the home screen.

Except for the second coming of Milton Berle, which is due next season, the comedies have had a steady decline in TV. Numerous theories for this have been expounded—the narrowing of subjects that can be kidded, the general humorlessness of our times, the difficulty of being funny every week.

All these have an effect, but I think the real reason is that other busaboo—over-exposure. Still it's more than that.

I have been propounding a motion called the Thomas saturation theory. I think the American public is full up to here with entertainment.

You can watch old movies all day and all night on TV, and the cost is only a few pennies in electricity. Any time you want, you can have your senses dulled by watching a variety of entertainment or what passes for it. Millions do so.

That's what is wrong with the movie business. Not the high price of baby sitters. Not poor pictures. It's just that most people are saturated with mental images of actors, singers, tap dancers, quiz contestants, etc.

The nation's teenagers are supporting the movie industry—only because they refuse to sit in the living room and watch the home screen. They want to break away from the nest, so they go to theaters.

That's the theory, anyway. Watch the scientific journals for further details.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What has happened to Red Buttons A.O.—After Oscar?

"Many wonderful things," said Red. "It's not just the offers that make you feel good, though they are nice too."

"The real thrill is the change in attitude that people have toward you. I don't just mean getting rinkside seats from head waiters; I always got them anyway, because I knew all the head waiters."

"It's a new respect that you feel from people, especially in your own profession. You know that they believe you have worked hard to achieve some success. The big thing is not the Oscar itself, but the fact that so many people were pulling for you to be a winner."

Red was a winner for his supporting role in "Sayonara." The achievement has sobered the one-time madcap comic of TV.

"I feel the responsibility to the people who had faith in me," he said. "I want to improve as an actor, and I'm working hard in that direction."

When he is in New York he attends classes twice weekly with other aspiring actors.

"It's really inspiring," he said. "Sitting next to me might be an actor whose total earnings last year were $900. Another might have earned $3,500. We're all working toward a common goal—improving ourselves as actors."

What next?

He said he has been reading movie scripts, but has found nothing to intrigue him yet. This summer he'll play a number of night club dates. I asked about chances he would do a TV series again in view of his new success and the fact that another TV retreat, Uncle Miltie Berle, is returning to the home screens.

"No series next season," Red declared. "I'll just do some guest shots."

Because of his flipflop on TV, Red looks at his present success philosophically: "I realize now that your career can't stay on top all the time. Next year there will be another academy winner. I'll just continue doing the best I know how."

So They Say

It is not easy to endure the kind of activities I had to go through today. It is not pleasant to be covered from head to foot with spit, and to have a man spit directly into the face of my wife.

HOW DUEY YOU DO!

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Alva Owen Duer and Alva Owen Duer have finally gotten together.

One of the Duers, who lives at Kansas City, Kan., and is executive secretary of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics, was in Lincoln for a speaking engagement when he heard of—and met for the first time—the Lincoln Veterans Administration official with the same name.

Neither knew of the other until the Lincoln Duer read about the Kansas City Duer in a newspaper clipping. The chat turned up the fact that grandfathers of the two Duers were brothers.

PROOF IGNORED

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Bob Owen, employed at Advanced Oil Tools, Inc. here, heard continued sirens and phoned police.

"Why all the sirens?" he asked. "There's a tornado," police told him.

"Where is it?" Owen asked. "Western part of town," the policeman said.

He was right. At that moment Owens heard a roaring overhead and the tornado ripped the roof from the building. He was unhurt.

Sack Soon?—Attrition—Most Host—Student Daze—Punctual—Outside In WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

Cocktail odds:

Two to one that Mamie Eisenhower is going to blossom out with a modified sack dress soon.

The White House officially denied that she had bought two of them earlier because of the unemployment problem.

Pretty soon I plan to quit work and for the rest of my life go to school."

CHIEF OF NAVAL operations, Adm. Arleigh Burke is the most punctual man in town. He's never late to his office or for a party. And it's no wonder. His official residence is at the Naval Observatory reservation on Massachusetts Avenue, where officially correct time is kept for the whole U.S. Also:

The U.S. Naval Observatory is the only one in the U.S. where fundamental positions of sun, moon, planets and stars are continuously determined for navigation purposes."

It took a retired White House Secret Service official, Harry Edward Neal, to produce this information. He reports it in his new book, "The Telescope," which also tells you how to make a satellite viewer for one buck. Great book for kids.

ONE OF THE biggest and certainly the most sensible garden parties ever tossed here drew a crowd of more than 2,500 persons, including Chief Justice of the United States Earl Warren. Event was the 21st anniversary of the Sheraton Hotel chain.

It was sensible because the hosts didn't trust the weather, although, as it turned out, the weather outside was fine. They created a garden party atmosphere in the huge Sheraton-Park ballroom. This meant that you couldn't dispose of warm drinks in the shrubbery. But then no woman sprained an ankle tripping in a mole hole, either.

"Where you and I come from we don't have to worry about not having sunshine for a party," Judge Warren from California remarked to fellow guest Secretary of the Treasury Bob Anderson from Texas.

An unofficial all-time shrimp consumption record was set at the party. An awful lot of champagne was drunk, too.

NEW AFGHANISTAN Ambassador Mohammed Hashim Mawlawi is an enthusiastic host who believes the worst booby an envoy can make is to forget to ask an old friend to a party.

Hashim was Afghanistan's Charge d'Affaires here in 1953.

In planning his embassy's invitation list, the ambassador has been attending practically every reception in town and chatting with all the other guests. The reason is that Hashim can't remember the names of some people he met here five years ago and figures the best place to meet them again is at parties.

So far, he has run into 15 old pals. And he has made so many new friends in the process that Afghanistan receptions are expected to become the most crowded in town.

THE MATURE Parent

Parent Must Teach Child to Obey for His Own Happiness

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Ward's mother, his grandparents, his Uncle Jack and Aunt Flo were all in the living room discussing his uncle's plan to drive to California this summer. The trouble was, Aunt Flo wanted to use part of the trip to visit her parents.

Ward's grandma said, "But Flo, Jack's got only three weeks to take in all those wonderful sights out west. He works so hard all year I do think that you..."

Bored by this grown-up talk, Ward had started running his dump truck's wheels up and down the arm of the sofa. Noticing this, his grandma interrupted herself to say to her daughter, "Connie, the boy will wreck the fabric on that sofa arm if you let him go on doing that."

So Ward's mother told him to stop.

He didn't. And at once every member of his mother's family stiffened, waiting for her to do something about it. When she ignored it, saying querulously, "He just won't do a thing he's told," they all started hating Ward.

His grandparents thought, "Poor Connie won't have her sorrows to seek raising this boy."

His Uncle Jack and Aunt Flo thought, "When this kid is around, nobody else gets a chance at attention."

But his mother's thought was the most resentful of all. She thought, "My family despises me because Ward doesn't obey me. Their contempt for me is his fault. If he'd only do what I tell him, he could save me from humiliation. But he never does. He never does..."

Thus five-year-old Ward paid the price of rejection by his family community for the insignificant pleasure of running a toy's wheel back and forth over a sofa.

Though Jesus managed rejection by people who said they loved him, little children cannot stand it.

Psychoanalyst Erich Fromm calls the Bible story of Cain an "illustration of the fact that what man most fears is rejection."

He writes, "The punishment that Cain called 'greater than I can bear' was to be made an outcast—to be separated from his fellow men."

We demand obedience from children to protect them against Cain's experience of hate and isolation. If we cannot demand it, it is because, like Ward's mother, we haven't felt the pain of our own rejection.

The World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is the real mystery of Charles de Gaulle: Is he shrewd or confused? One thing is sure: he's one of the real odd-balls of the 20th century.

He expresses faith in himself and the future of France with him as leader. But he has shown personal and political immaturity and difficulty adjusting to the realities of the world he lives in.

His arrogance and his troubles getting along with people associated with him are examples of his personal immaturity. He has demonstrated his political immaturity in his attitude towards politics and politicians.

Example: He brushed aside at his May 19 news conference—without denying it—any idea he wants to be a dictator. Yet he despises politicians and political horse-trading.

He quit as head of the French provisional government in 1946 because of political dickering in the Legislature. He speaks of the "poisons" of the parliamentary system.

Yet, without the parliamentary and the politicians' horse-trading there could be no republic but only a dictatorship. The answer lies in between: a parliamentary system with more stability than France has produced so far.

This writer Wednesday polled specialists on France, asking if they had any idea of what De Gaulle really represents and what he might do if he came to power. All agreed he's a French nationalist, a French-firster.

Beyond that there was only puzzlement except for the one opinion: That he was very shrewd at his May 19 news conference. Why shrewd? This was the answer: Because he really didn't say anything.

This writer disagrees that there is anything necessarily shrewd about that. True enough, De Gaulle gave out with nothing but double-talk. But it may have been because he couldn't think straight and had no policy or program for France.

There is certainly concern in the Western world that De Gaulle, once he led the government, might turn into a manipulated stooge for men far shrewder than he, particularly military men.

He did play a great role as rallying point in World War II for French men crushed by the Nazis. But some of his performances after the war threw doubt on his awareness of what the world is like.

France owed its liberation to the United States and Britain. But France's very dependence on its allies irritated De Gaulle. After the shooting stopped he flew to Moscow and signed a mutual aid agreement with the Soviet Union.

This seemed to have been an effort to play both ends against the middle. Later he expressed surprise and disappointment because Moscow didn't keep its word.

Although he was anti-Communist, he took France's No. 1 Communist, Maurice Thorez, into his cabinet. Yet, with the presence of Allied troops to give him strength, he dismissed the communists.

In 1948 diplomats here and abroad feared that if De Gaulle returned to power then he would jeopardize the North Atlantic Treaty Organization—an alliance of Western powers for mutual defense against the Soviet Union—then in the process of creation. He was saying:

"It is inconceivable that the defense of France should be assured by anyone other than the French themselves. This was really talking through his hat, since he had seen what happened when France tried to stand up to the Nazis in 1940.

Now again there is concern over what De Gaulle would do—perhaps try to take France out of NATO—if he came to power, for as late as 1964 he was calling for the reorganization of NATO so France could have full power of action.

Happy Times

Secret Scattergood Has Fun

Doing Favors for Strangers

By MARIE DAERR

MRS. J. W. in her 70's, runs for her scissors whenever her town's newspaper prints a story about a person in the "golden" years.

Maybe it's a story about a 90-year-old who still can dance a jig. Or a retired accountant who likes to build bird houses. Or an elderly couple with a hobby of photographing covered bridges.

Mrs. J. W. clips the story. She sends the clipping and one dollar — the price of a glossy print of the original picture — to the newspaper's photography department. Then she visits her neighborhood variety store and picks up a pretty but inexpensive frame.

That's when Mr. J. W. gets into the act. It is his job to drop off the framed picture at the home of the delighted subject of the story. He does this fast, without saying who the giver is. In fact, he hardly waits for the happy,ammered, "Why, thank you!"

This project has been Mrs. J. W.'s hobby for 10 years. Mrs. J. W. makes one request — which the newspaper has respected. She wants to stay anonymous.

So the newspaper hasn't written about her. And the photographers won't tell callers the name of the person who requested a print.

"When I stop doing this, you can write about me," Mrs. J. W. tells the paper. "But, while I'm doing it, staying anonymous is half the fun."

Mrs. J. W. sets aside a little fund for this sunshine-spreading project.

"It costs practically nothing," she says. "And it gives these people — and us — a lot of happiness."

Mrs. J. W. needn't worry about getting bored. Her hobby will take care of that. And it's her bet she's not going to stop enjoying her project as long as she has a dollar left in her bank account! What do you think?

Q—I'm 70 and I like gardening. I've monkeyed around in the yard all my life. All of a sudden, my young relatives and friends seem to be ganging up on me with a "Hadin't you better quit that at your age" routine. I tell them what I'm doing isn't nearly so taxing as the golf my elderly neighbor plays. What do you say? —B. C.

A—I'd say go ahead, in moderation. Doctors claim gardening is a fine tonic, so long as you have sense enough not to overdo. Happy weeding!

Q—I'm 68 years old. If my earnings go over $1200 a year, must I report this to my Social Security office? —L. A.

A—Yes. You must do this until you are 72.

WEEKLY BIBLE COMMENT

The Old Testament

By WILLIAM E. GIBROY, D.D.

Considering the historic persecution of Jews by those professing to be Christians, it is not surprising that for many Jews the name of Christ has not stood for the gentle Jesus, Teacher of love and grace.

It is good to note, therefore, the great increase of active good will on the part of true Christians and the response of many Jews who have a new understanding of what Christian faith and practice means in such Christians, though they may not themselves accept the view of Jesus as the Messiah.

Few Jews, however, though responsive to Christian approaches and seeing values in the New Testament that they had not seen before, would agree with a statement that I recently saw by a Jewish convert to Christianity that "The New Testament is the greatest book which the Jewish race has ever produced."

For a devout Christian the New Testament is undoubtedly the greatest and most important of all books. But for the devout Jew the Old Testament has just the same value. To that extent any statement that seems to make an invidious distinction between two great parts of the Bible appears to me to be unwise.

For a Christian the Old and New Testaments stand together, and there is a very real sense in which they cannot be separated. The Old Testament is the foundation on which the New Testament is built. It contains the spiritual heritage that Jesus said He had not come to destroy, but to fulfill. The New Testament is the record of the fulfillment.

Moreover, there are many parts of the New Testament that cannot be understood without reference to the Old. The great affirmations of the Old Testament did not need to be reaffirmed in the New. They were the groundwork and belief of the writers of the New.

If Jesus in the Gospel gave a larger message concerning the Fatherhood of God, it was as He said, the same old whom Abraham perceived by faith.

The supreme greatness of the Old Testament is in the clarity with which from the very beginning it links together God and man. It is man reasoning from his own being to the Supreme Being, and the God whom he worships is a God with whom he can reason, and to whom in a sense he can talk back.

The passage in Genesis 18:23-33 which represents Abraham as doing just that, reasoning with God about what is right, is surely amazing in its implications, and even unique in the records of man's approach to God.

A living God, a holy God, a righteous God. It was with realism that St. Paul declared the Jews' advantage (Romans 3:12): "chiefly because unto them were committed the oracles of God."

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D. (Written for NEA Service)

Anyone who feels he is self-sufficient ought to think about the number of people involved in serving him in a single day.

A whole book would be required to outline the work of the different persons who contribute to one day of our normal living.

The alarm clock which wakens us, requires a designer, several draftsmen, a number of miners of metals, scores of craftsmen, executives, clerks, salesmen, advertising men, packers, delivery men and dozens of other folk who were indirectly related to the production and marketing of the ringing clock.

Even your orange juice or your grapefruit at breakfast required scores of people in order to make it available this morning.

And behind all of the people and things involved was a Creator of man and of living things and of material elements.

God is in the picture not only as the Creator but also as the Motivator for activity and the maintenance of the order needed for existence.

We cannot live without others and without God. Let us recognize this dependence and contribute our share in the process for our appreciation of what God and people do for us.

If you like to draw, send a picture—all your own work and just 4 inches square—to the Jacksonville Junior Journal-Courier with your name, age and address.

BIRTHDAY PARADE

June Parade Starts
Several marchers are here to start our June Birthday parade so look sharp—here they come—

Above is Mary Louise Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moore Jr. of 650 S. West St. Mary Louise was 11 on May 24 just the day after her parents' sixteenth wedding anniversary. (She was almost an anniversary present wasn't she?)

Mary Louise had a houseful of her many friends at her party with a big brown and white cake decorated with icing flowers. There were paper hats and games too and everything that goes with a real Happy Birthday Party!

Here is Mickey Eugene Clayton, who was one May 23, toddling along in the parade. Mickey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clayton of Franklin. Billy Lucas, of 735 W. Douglas, who was 10-years-old May 31, is our next marcher.

Debra Elizabeth Boes who will be one June 4, Debra Leigh Boes, who will be four June 19 and Kristine Boes, who will be six June 23. (You saw their brother Kerry Wayne Boes marching in the Birthday Parade in May.)

These June Birthday girls are the daughters of Mrs. Erma Jean Boes and the late Kenneth W. Boes. Kristine will start school this fall and already has two years perfect attendance in Sunday school and expects to have 3 by fall. Debra will finish her second year of perfect Sunday School attendance this fall.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ALL our Birthday Marchers!

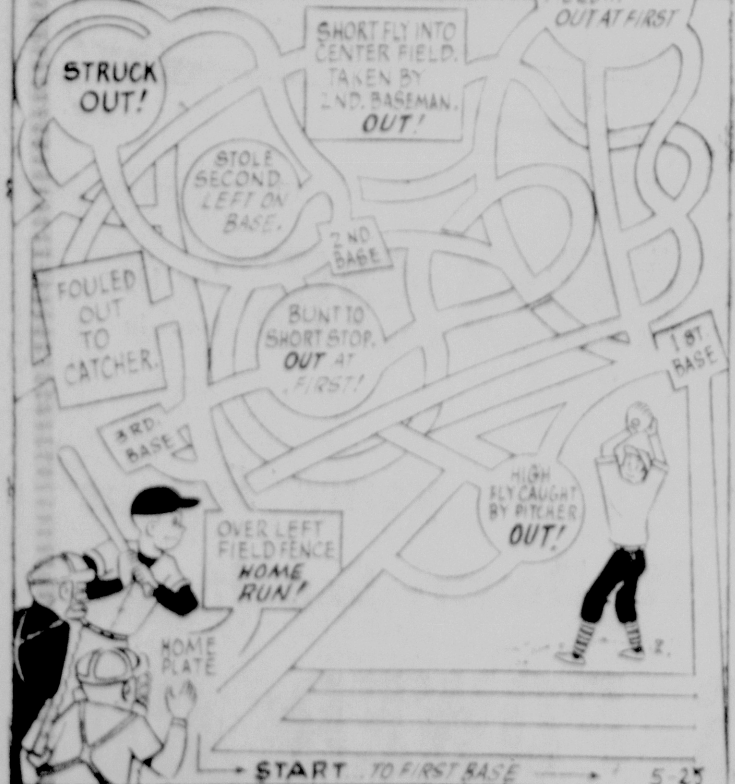

YOUR BIRTHDAY
To march in the Birthday parade just send your name, address, age and birthdate to the Jacksonville Junior Journal-Courier 2 or more weeks before your birthday. Send a snapshot also if you have one (it can be called for as soon as it has appeared in the paper).

If you have a party write and tell us about that later.

Let's Go Birding

PURPLE FINCHES

By Emma Mae Leonhard

This has been a spring of unusual bird events. In our article last Sunday we spoke of the Whip-poor-will's calling early in the morning. During the first week in May some gardens were filled with Goldfinches, flitting here and there like great yellow and black butterflies.

The elms in the two-hundred block on Caldwell Street served as an extensive choir loft for a great chorus of Goldfinches chattering, singing, calling their "see-see-e" or "perchico-ree." A symphony of an endless series of trills and twitters flooded the entire area, climaxing even the song of Robins, House Wrens, and Brown Thrashers.

During the last half of April, Miss Ainslie Moore reported a flock of Purple Finches in her garden on West State street. They were singing their rapid, high-pitched warble with that beautiful liquid quality.

Sometimes a Purple Finch's song becomes almost a trill; at other times it comes in short snatches, broken by long pauses. This finch also has a metallic call note, a sound like "tick" or "pit," which is short and distinctive and which helps bird-watchers to easily locate it.

Lingers Here
Although we usually think of the Purple Finch as a common winter visitor in our woods from October to April, it was still in Jacksonville on May 1, as the Jacksonville High School Bird Club found it then on Pine street. It was reported singing as late as May 8 near the Jacksonville High School.

We understand that Purple Finches are invading parks and residential areas where evergreens have been planted, according to Richard H. Pough. Perhaps evergreen plantings are attracting them here. However, in every case they were seen feeding on the elm tree buds.

Purple is hardly the right color to describe this finch; raspberry is more appropriate. The male finch is about the size of our English Sparrow and is rosy-red, being brightest on the head and rump. The female is a heavily striped brown sparrow-like bird with a broad whitish line over the eye. In fact, the members of the Bird Club at first thought that it was only an English Sparrow. When they focused their binoculars on the lone bird sitting near the top of an elm eating the buds on the tree, they were happy to grant that it was a female Purple Finch. It was also a new life-bird for each member.

How To Take Care Of Pets

BY RAY BROEKEL

GUINEA PIGS

First of all we should say that Guinea Pigs did not come from New Guinea, and they are not pigs. They were originally found in Peru and then were introduced to the United States to be used as laboratory animals.

Guinea Pigs as already mentioned, are not pigs, but they are Cavies. Cavies belong to the Rodent Order of Mammals. Other members of the Rodent Order are rabbits, rats, beavers, chipmunks, porcupines, etc. All of these animals are closely related because of the gnawing teeth they have.

Gentle And Clean
Guinea Pigs make good pets because they are gentle, clean, and easy to take care of. Naturally all that has been said depends upon the way you take care of them. Almost all animals do well in captivity if they are well taken care of.

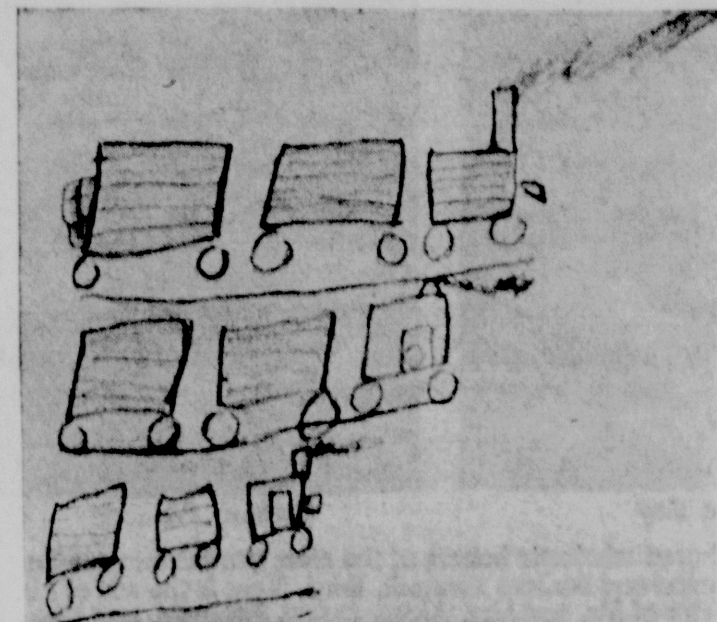

Short-hair Guinea Pigs make better pets than the long-hair kind since the latter often gets matted hair.

A roomy wire cage, two feet wide, two feet long, one foot high will hold two average size Guinea Pigs. This cage should be covered on the bottom with sawdust, shredded newspaper, or excelsior. This should be cleaned out at least twice a week. In the very warm weather cleaning of the cage every other day wouldn't be too often.

Keep the cage where it will not be in a draft. The best spot would be in a dry location that is neither too hot nor too cold. A temperature between 75 and 80 degrees suits them best.

Guinea Pigs live on vegetable matter and therefore feeding them is no problem.
Feed Twice Daily
Feed them twice a day for best results. In the morning you can feed them fresh vegetables—lettuce, carrots, celery, spinach, beet tops, etc. (Make sure you always remove any left over greens from the last meal. If you don't, it will spoil.) Late afternoon, feed a dry food such as rabbit pellets, rolled

A Trip To Mars

By Charles E. Boston

Editor's note: Here is the concluding section of a science fiction story by a Junior page reader, Charles Boston, age 9, of 1017 S. Clay. If you like to write, why not send your story in for publication?

Part 3: On Mars

As we land on Mars we find it peaceful there. First the radar is hauled off the rocket.

Inside we have our gas masks and our oxygen tanks on. We are ready to take a tour through Mars. We have our space guns ready with fire in them.

When we decide to start back there is a sudden attack. We start running for the rocket, but we are stiff.

We are taken to a state of Mars. Suddenly a rocket finds us. We are saved at last!

Red, Baseball Player

By Rip Barnadall

Part 2: Bully Catches On

"Tomorrow," the coach said after instructions had been given, "we are going to have a practice game. We'll make up two teams. Here are the line-ups."

John Merton was slated to play on one squad, and Red on the other.

It was a warm, sunny afternoon, so the players were in high spirits for the game.

Red, batting in the fifth spot, managed to get two hits out of his first three times at bat.

In the seventh and last inning he was the first to bat as his team came up in the bottom half of the inning. They were trailing by one run.

Red hit a good smash over the shortstop's head. By the time the left and center fielders were able to get after it he was well on his way to second.

He slid safely into third, beating the left fielder's throw by a good margin.

Allan Devo, coaching on third base, cautioned Red to play it safe, since there were no outs.

Red ignores warning.
Red, however, had plans of his own. He had been able to bully others about easily—why not the catcher? If he were to steal home he'd have no trouble knocking the ball out of his hands.

The next batter hit an infield drive to the second baseman. Red was off with the crack of the bat. The second baseman, seeing what was happening, whipped the ball in to the catcher, who held it ready to tag Red. Still a good yards away.

Red saw that he would really have to give the catcher the business, so he crashed into him. Red went sailing over the plate. The catcher head over heels toward the bench.

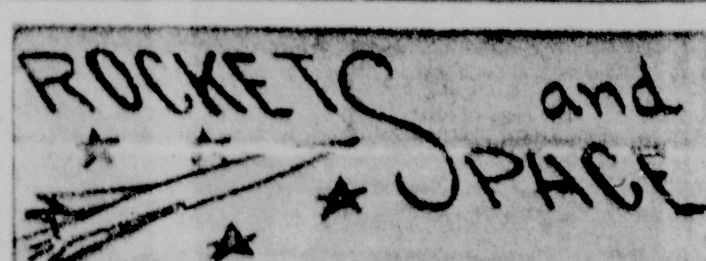

"You're Out!"
The umpire, seeing that the catcher still held the ball, yelled, "You're out!"
Red immediately picked himself up and began arguing with the umpire. He noticed, after a few moments, that everything was very quiet around him.

He turned around to see what was the matter. What he saw was a crowd gathered around the catcher, still on the ground.

The coach was bending over the unconscious player. "He'll be all right."

Moon With An Atmosphere

By Walter B. Hendrickson Jr.

Saturn has nine moons, the largest of which is Titan, which has an atmosphere. It is the only one of the 31 natural satellites in the solar system that does have an atmosphere.

Its atmosphere is made of ammonia and methane like that of Saturn. Titan is the only moon in the solar system large enough to have an atmosphere.

Titan is 3,500 miles in diameter—about once and a half as big as our moon. Its escape velocity is about twice that of our moon.

Titan is 1,200 miles from Saturn and it takes about 15 days for it to rotate around that planet. (Our moon goes around the earth in some 28 to 29 days).

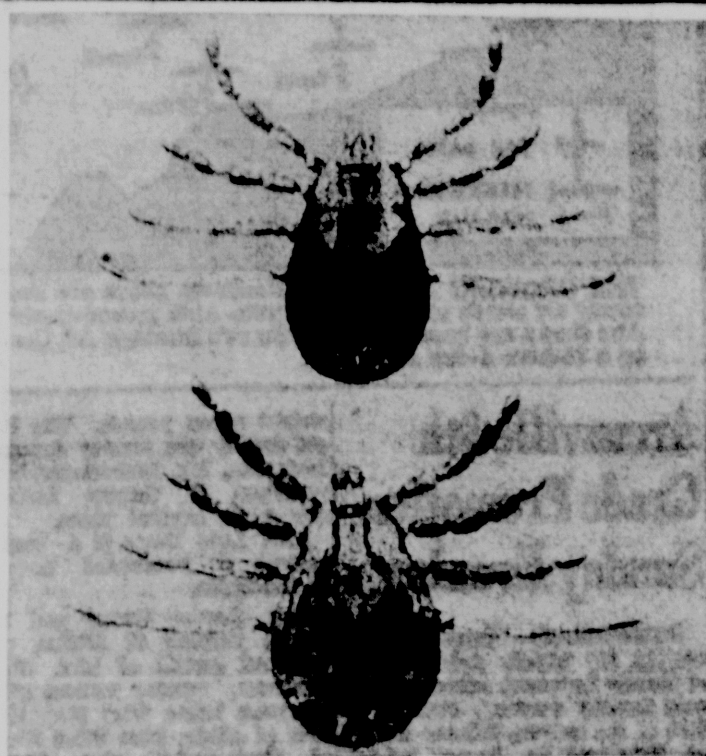

Smallest Saturn Moon
The smallest of Saturn's moons is Phoebe, just 200 miles in diameter. It is also the moon farthest away from Saturn—13 million miles away. If there are any Saturnians (which is extremely doubtful) they probably don't even know that Phoebe is there.

Phoebe takes 550 days to go around Saturn.
The moon closest to Saturn is Mimas. It comes within 113,000 miles from Saturn.
Mimas is 375 miles in diameter and goes around Saturn every nine and four-tenths days. When we get to Saturn, Mimas will be useful for getting a closeup look at that planet and its three rings.

The methane in Titan's atmosphere might be used for atomic rockets. Titan probably has some liquid hydrogen, on its surface, which would also be useful fuel for rockets.

Jeannie Studies The Creature World

By Melma Huckleby Ewert

Part 2: Look At Tick
Jeannie's Daddy is teaching her about the "Creature World" and they have brought home a tick to study.

Professor Daddy said, "I'll adjust this plate in the 'mike' (that is what we call a microphone in college)." But Jeannie thought it even funnier to call that little piece of glass a "plate!"

Daddy stood up. "All ready. Now you may look, Jeannie."

Jeannie placed her eye to the eye-piece as she had seen Daddy do. "W-e-l-l, w-e-l-l," she cried. "Mite has eight legs, that little insect has—"

"Insect? Jeannie?"
"Excuse me, Professor Daddy; I was so surprised. I mean that little mite has eight legs."

Daddy asked Jeannie questions while she had her eye to the mite. He used scientific names of course.

"See his pointing, piercing mandibles (or jaws)?"

"See his palpi (or feelers)?"

"See his large abdomen; inside it are his digestive organs."

"See his small head?"

"Notice, Jeannie, his thorax (where his legs are fastened) and his abdomen are made together all in one piece."

While Jeannie looked, Daddy talked some more. "Mite is in that same big class that Spider and Scorpion are: class AR-ACH-NIDIA. Is Mite more like the Spider family or the Scorpion family?"

Knees Like Telescope
Still peepin' at Mite, Jeannie explained what she saw. "This mite, so big on that plate, has eight legs that have seven little knees that work like my telescope. Mite has tiny claws, too. Me's like both families." (Daddy liked the way she explained it.)

An American Every One Should Know—

Henry Leber Coit

By Walter B. Hendrickson

Works For Clean Milk

Today, when you buy milk at the grocery store, or have it delivered to your home, it comes in clean, tightly closed containers, either waxed cardboard or glass bottles.

Someplace on the container you will find the words "Grade A". This means that the milk meets high standards of quality and cleanliness, according to a law of the state of Illinois.

But if you had lived seventy years ago, the milkman would have carried his milk in large tin cans, and you would have brought your pitcher or your bucket out to him. He would have simply ladeled it out. You would not have known whether it was clean, whether it was germ-free, or whether it came from healthy cows.

It was Doctor Henry Leber Coit of Newark, New Jersey, a specialist in doctoring children, who led movement to have good, clean milk. He had seen children die, even one of his own, because there was no pure milk for them.

Wants To Save Lives
Determined to save the lives of other children, he first tried to persuade the legislature to pass a law requiring minimum standards of cleanliness by all who handled milk. This was 1890, and many people did not believe in the germ theory of disease, so the legislature refused to pass the law.

Then Dr. Coit began a process of education. He started with his fellow doctors and showed them how dangerous to children's health bad milk could be. He drew up a statement of what was required for clean milk—clean hands, clean udders, clean pails, sterile containers, healthy cows, safe workingmen, good feed and fodder, suitable bedding and proper housing.

His fellow doctors agreed that they would recommend that only "certified milk" should be given to children, and a few milk producers agreed to provide it, although it would cost more than just ordinary milk. A voluntary committee of doctors and dairymen was set up to make inspections and certify to the purity of the milk.

Follow Dr. Coit's Plan
Within a few years many other cities had formed "milk commissions" following Dr. Coit's plan. When it became clear that babies were healthier when they drank "certified milk," states began to pass laws requiring that standards for certified milk should be met by all dairies.

Dr. Henry Leber Coit was one of many who worked to teach people that science can be useful, if people bad milk could be. He drew up a plan to your hand.

We'll need two pie pans (one a little smaller than the other), 1/2-pound of brown resin and gum shellac and a piece of sealing wax for a handle for the smaller pan.

First we put the resin and gum shellac in the larger pan and heat SLOWLY over a low fire until melted, and then mix well. Be CAREFUL that this mixture doesn't catch fire! Now place it aside to cool on a level surface; this is called the SOLE.

Next heat one end of the sealing wax handle and stick it to the center of the smaller pan on the inside; this is called the COVER.

Now to make the apparatus work first warm the SOLE and cover it to remove moisture; then rub the wax surface of the SOLE with a piece of flannel and the SOLE will become negatively charged.

Holding the COVER with the wax handle, place it carefully inside the SOLE but don't let the two pans touch each other. The cover will be positively charged. There will be a small negative charge on the lid that you must get rid of by touching the cover with your finger.

Finally, to see miniature lightning in action pick up the COVER and hold your finger close to its edge. A healthy spark will jump between them, but you'll feel a real shock!

Repeat the process with the COVER and another spark will jump. This spark is no different (except in intensity) from that present in lightning.

For more such interesting experiments see "Making Things For Fun" by A. Frederick Collins.

Altrusa Entertains Many Guests At Annual Meeting

A large number of guests were entertained Monday evening at the annual Guest Day dinner meeting of the Altrusa Club of Jacksonville held at the Jacksonville Country Club. The guest speaker, Mrs. Ethel Jones Boyle of Springfield, who is governor-elect of the Altrusa International district in which Jacksonville is included, was guest speaker. Mrs. Boyle is pictured at the far right with the Jacksonville club president, Mrs. Marie Ritchie, at the right, and Mrs. Boyle, left.

The top left picture shows, left to right, guests of the club, Mrs. Don Kirchhoefer, Miss Dorothy Fenton, past president of the Jonesboro, Arkansas, Altrusa club, and Mrs. Roy Johnson. The group picture top right includes, left to right, Mrs. John Newton Baker, Mrs. Arthur Yates, Mrs. W. T. Keenan and Mrs. Wilbur Kumble.

Governor-Elect Of Altrusa District Here

Over fifty attended the annual Guest Day dinner meeting of the Altrusa Club of Jacksonville held Monday evening, May 26, at the Jacksonville Country Club. Tables were attractively decorated with pastels with predominate white. Tapers at the dining tables were white and at the speakers table, green. Spring flowers were lavishly used in green crystal vases. Leather bound address books, with corded pencils and engraved, "Altrusa" were favors at each place setting. During a social hour before the serving at seven o'clock of a fried chicken dinner guests enjoyed fruit punch. The club president, Mrs. Stuart Ritchie, gave the invocation before the meal.

Following the dinner Mrs. Ritchie extended a welcome to the group and asked Mrs. Ella Bruce to present the musical part of the program. Mrs. Bruce, a faculty member at the Illinois Braille and Sight Saving School presented four pupils, three seniors and one junior girl. They were Peggy Carter of Danville, Celine Bush of Rochelle, Ill.; Clodell Price of Bonnie, Ill. and Carole Ann Smith from Yates City. The girls call themselves "The Tonettes." Their harmony was excellent and their presentation of "Let the Rest of the World Go By," "Catch a Falling Star" and "Never Be Afraid," charmed the audience. They favored the group with an encore, "Good Night, God."

Mrs. Ritchie presented the speaker, Mrs. Ethel Jones Boyle, Springfield, dietetics supervisor with the Department of Welfare and governor-elect of Altrusa District Six.

Mrs. Boyle told of attending the regional Traffic Safety Conference held in Chicago attended by over 1,300 civic minded men and women.

She quoted President Eisenhower, told of Governor Stratton's participation in the overall effort to stress traffic safety and listed a number of important facts concerning road and pedestrian safety.

Mrs. Ritchie announced and welcomed three new members into the local club, Mrs. Bess Kumble of Alexander; Miss Dorothy Fenton, head librarian at the Jacksonville Public Library and Mrs. Janet Henry, registered nurse.

A number of guests from the Altrusa Club of Pekin attended the meeting. They were Mrs. Virginia Sams, Miss Olive Lohnes, Miss Elsie Reinhard, Miss Helen Smedley, Miss Lubena Zimmerman and Miss Margaret Baeston.

A Springfield woman, Mrs. Maude Wahl, was also a guest at the meeting.

Young People Plan Missionary Trip In South

PITTSFIELD — Fifteen young people of the high school department of the Methodist church will leave at 4 o'clock Thursday morning for a missionary trip through the South by automobile.

There will be four cars in the entourage to be driven by Rev. and Mrs. Alex Porteus, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rose, Mr. and Mrs. James McKinney of Pittsfield, and the Rev. J. William Jones of the Methodist church at Ashland, who will conduct the tour.

Those planning to go are Jerry Brown, Robert Peecher, Jim Harter, Don Fidler, James K. McKinney, Gary Roberts, Jim Harry, Frank Durr, Dwight Long, Rachel Hunter, Bonnie Hayden, Vera Dean, Sherry Biddle, Mary McHose and Carol Moore.

Pupils From 5 Counties To Dance In Recitals Here On May 5, 6, 7

The Grant's School of Dance will present their more than two hundred pupils in the Jacksonville area in a recital series next week, June 5, 6 and 7 at the Jacksonville High school. The presentation each night will start at 7:30 p.m. Other than Morgan county, students from Pike, Cass, Scott and Sangamon counties will perform in the three night attraction.

The theme for this year's recital is "You Ain't Seen Nothing Yet." The two settings are: The Enchanted Toyland and Showboat. Instructors are Mary Jane and Charles Grant and Norma Zane Hazelrigg. Assistants are Beverly Bray, Marge Medlock, Diane Sassenberger and Sue Potts.

Music will be furnished by pianists, Ginny Sassenberger, Harriett Funk and Jean Luttrell; saxophone, Bob Sassenberger; drums, Boots Brennan and bango, Dack Daniels.

The Thursday night recital will include students from Jacksonville, Beardsden and Pittsfield. The Friday night show will feature pupils from Jacksonville and Winchester and the final performance Saturday will have mostly pupils from the Jacksonville, New Berlin, Virginia, Roodhouse and Waverly communities performing.

A percentage of the proceeds will be presented to a charitable organization. Tickets are being sold by students and may be obtained at the door the night of the respective performances.

Church Of Christ Bible School To Open At Ashland

ASHLAND — The Ashland Church of Christ Vacation Bible school plans are now completed. The sessions will run from Monday, June 2 through Friday, June 12, meeting each week day from two until four, Daylight time.

Mrs. Jamie Morgan, director of the school, has announced that the children may pre-register Sunday afternoon, June 1, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. The ages included in the school are four through fourteen.

Under the direction of Mrs. Morgan, the workers and teachers have been meeting in a two-hour session of preparation for the past four weeks. Each lesson is practiced, each item of handwork is prepared and each day's work is well planned in advance. This method of preparation assures the maximum use of the daily program.

Over one hundred students were enrolled last summer and an even greater attendance is anticipated this year.

Entertains Class Miss Rosella Jones entertained the Martha Sunday school class of the Methodist church at her home on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Karl Hager was in the art of correct pronunciation, charge of the program. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Iris Hickman.

Mrs. Iris Hickman and grandson, Garland Winner, have returned to their homes here after a few weeks visit in Columbus, Georgia, with the former's son, Specialist 3/c Forrest Hickman and family.

The Happy Hustlers Sunday school class of the Church of Christ enjoyed a hamburger fry Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glyn Jones arrived here the first of the week from Fort Meyers, Florida, for a several days visit at the home of the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fitzsimmons, and also with the former's daughter, Mrs. Charles Forman and family.

Harry Price and his mother, Mrs. Myra Price, and the former's sister-in-law, Miss Etta Matthews, spent the weekend in Jerseyville with relatives.

Seniors Visit Ozarks The senior class of the local high school returned home Sunday evening from a few days outing in the Ozark mountains.

Mrs. Cassie Riggs has returned to her home in Kahokia, Mo., after an extended visit here at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. James Riggs and sons. Mrs. James Riggs has since been admitted to the Memorial hospital, and is under the oxygen tent.

Manchester WSCS Hears Assembly Report

MANCHESTER—Several guests were present at the May 20 meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Manchester Methodist church held in the afternoon in the parlors at the church. The president, Mrs. James Gordon, was in charge of the meeting.

Devotions were given by the president, Mrs. Gordon, on March of Mission Dollars. Routine business was conducted before a report was heard from Mrs. Orville Wise who attended the National Assembly of the WSCS held May 6, 7, 8 and 9 in St. Louis at Keil Auditorium.

Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Charles Travis were present for different sessions of the Assembly also. Mrs. Wise reported to the interested group that noted speakers from the East told the Assembly of the very impressive position the Women's Society of Christian Service now commands as an organization both from a religious viewpoint and civic. Clinics were held and much instruction was obtained from leaders versed in local level problems.

Three guests from Roodhouse were present. Mrs. W. E. Gustafson, past president of the WSCS district, Mrs. W. O. Harp and Miss Nellie Sawyer.

Mrs. Gustafson offered the benediction. At the close of the program members and guests enjoyed tea served with fancy cookies from an attractive table adorned with a floral centerpiece.

Sullivan, Secretary-Treasurer of Eli Bridge Company and Mrs. Herman Lien of the Big ELI office. Others in the receiving line included Mr. Herman Lien, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Little, Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Sullivan Jr., and Liam Sullivan of Hollywood, Calif.

Big ELI employees and their wives assisted in serving and conducting the tours through the factory. On display were products of Eli manufacture — Big ELI Wheel in the wheel erecting room and Big ELI Scramber in the north yard. Guests were shown the operation of these amusement devices although visitors could not be offered rides. The chromium-plated, precision built-to-scale Model Big ELI Wheel with attractively dressed dolls in each seat, was operated just inside the factory main entrance.

Mayor and Mrs. Robert DuBois and daughter were among the guests. The picture above shows the mayor congratulating Mr. Sullivan on his fifty years of service at Eli.

Friends were in attendance from St. Louis, Alton, Carrollton, White Hall, Roodhouse, and Winchester, in addition to those coming from all parts of Morgan county to see the only factory built especially for the manufacture of Ferris Wheels. During the afternoon Mr. Sullivan received a telephone call from a boyhood friend, Henry Hart, formerly of Roodhouse who now lives in Bell Gardens, Calif. When these two were young men they teamed together in the operation of Big ELI Wheels in Illinois and Indiana.

Many floral congratulations were received from business firms and personal friends. Also telegrams, cards and letters were displayed on a large bulletin board. All extended well wishes to Lee A. Sullivan and members of his family and the Big ELI organization.

ASHLAND Junior Club Has Spring Banquet
ASHLAND — Members of the Ashland Junior Womens Club and guests held their annual Spring banquet last Thursday, May 22 at the Virginia Country Club. Following the dinner the welcome was given by Mrs. Walter Jurgens, Junior Club president, with Mrs. Ralph Newell, senior president, responding.

A short business meeting was held at which time the cook books "Snack-Time Symphony" were distributed for members to sell. Betty Price announced firemen are again letting Junior Club women sell advanced ride tickets for the carnival to be here in June. A book of tickets sells for $1.00 and may be purchased from any member until the week of the carnival. Junior Club members will also have charge of the concession stand at the ball park for two weeks this summer. The proceeds will go to the "Stop Light Fund."

Mrs. Tom Walbaum attended the state convention held recently in Chicago and gave a very interesting report.

Install Officers
New officers installed by Mrs. Homer Buller for the next season were: president, Shirley Duling; vice president, Lucile Johnson; secretary, Jean Martin; treasurer, Betty Price, and senior contract chairman, Mrs. Jack Gardner.

Mrs. Jurgens was presented with a Junior Past President's pin in recognition of her very fine work for the past two years.

Mrs. Duling announced the following committees for the year: Scrapbook co-chairman, Lucile Johnson and Mary Lou Newell;

Linda Devlin, Nancy Falls, Darlene Douglas and Evelyn Allen. Program Chairmen, Carole Young, Lois Yancy, Marge Joch, Dorothy Boehmer, Mary Price and Mary Lovekamp.

Social, chairman Eleanor Strubling, Rosemary Suffer, Ruth Flinn, Barb Baker, and Donna Farmer.

Membership, Joan Nordick, Eleanor Cosner.

Project chairman, Janice Williams, Betty Lockett.

BILL CRAIGMILES AT HONOR BANQUET AT BLACKBURN
WHITE HALL—Bill Craigmiles, son of William Craigmiles, was among the students feted at the annual Honors Banquet May 24 at Blackburn College, Carlinville. To receive recognition at the dinner a student must be an outstanding participant in the academic field or a leader in the area of the student-managed work program. Craigmiles was honored for his excellent work in the dining hall.

MATERIALS NEEDED TO ARRANGE FLOWERS SHOWN TO SOCIETY
At the May meeting of the Lynnville Christian Church Aid Society, Mrs. Eugene Dodsworth gave a very interesting talk and demonstration on flower arrangements. Mrs. Dodsworth told how and when to gather flowers and demonstrated several kinds of flower frogs, wire and containers to be used in bouquet arrangements.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lucie Hardy with Mrs. Lilly Allen as the assistant hostess. There were 20 members and several guests present. The devotions for the afternoon were given by the president, Mrs. Henry Mason, on the subject of "Tensions." Mrs. Brownie Brown and Miss Margaret Heaton were the program committee.

After the refreshments and social hour, a flower exchange was held.

Hold Investiture Service For Bluffs Brownies

BLUFFS — Bluffs Brownie Scouts participated in campfire investiture service late Tuesday afternoon preceding a wiener and marshmallow roast at the Vannier "Shack" north of Naples.

The leader, Mrs. Norman Howland, directed roll call at which each Brownie gave a safety rule at summer play. Then each member in turn presented herself to her leader who placed the "trefoil" pin emblem on the right side of her collar, then she in turn gave the Brownie salute. The service closed with the repeating of the Brownie pledge in unison and the singing of the Brownie song.

Mike Howland, cub scout member, accompanied them and supervised the building of the campfire, with two mothers, Mrs. Francis Placke and Mrs. Vannier, assisting Mrs. Howland.

Brownies present were Barbara Alexander, Mary Ann Bailey, Susan Placke, Janet Goodin, Connie Neese, Patty Howland, Cheryl Merris and Gretchen Vannier. Marlys Ann Little was unable to attend because of illness.

Following the "cook out" the girls watched the river barges, gathered shells and explored the pump plant and levee area.

Dr. Luise Kuehn To Receive State Medical License

BLUFFS—Dr. Luise Kuehn received word last weekend that she had successfully passed her examinations given by the State Department of Registration and Education and will be issued a license to practice medicine in Illinois. She is a 1947 graduate of the Medical School of Dusseldorf University, Germany, and did medical research at the University of Bonn in Western Germany before coming to the United States. She is also a registered nurse.

Since coming to Illinois in 1950, she was employed at the Chicago Evangelical Hospital as anesthetist and at the Newberry Mental State Hospital of Michigan. She received her citizenship papers in May 1955.

Following her husband's death, she has served her internship at the Chicago Evangelical Hospital for the past two years and studying for her examinations. She has made no definite plans for practicing. She has two sons, Freddy, age 5, and Tony, age 3.

Visits Here

Lafayette Six of Kansas City is visiting relatives and friends in the Bluffs community.

Miss Frances Oakes left Saturday for California after a three week visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oakes. Her parents took her to St. Louis where she took a plane for the trip.

Fred Barnett of the U.S. Navy, stationed at Chaste Field, Beeville, Texas, arrived home on emergency leave because of the illness of his father and grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller arrived in Bluffs from Florida. They plan to make their home in Brown county. Their household goods were trucked from Lake City by the Paul B. Smith Trucking Company.

ROODHOUSE—The annual vacation Bible school opened Tuesday morning at the First Baptist church with an enrollment of 52 pupils and 12 teachers. Director of the school which opens each morning at 9 and continues until 11 is the pastor, Rev. H. L. Janvrin, and pianist is Mrs. Janvrin.

Teachers and assistants for the groups are as follows: Nursery, Mrs. Ardell Kimmel, Mrs. Jack Jordan, Mrs. Glenn Taylor; Kindergarten, Mrs. Clem Coats, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Vincent Rescoe; Primary, two groups, Mrs. Galen Tippet, Mrs. Wayne Elliott, Mrs. Paul Drennan, Mrs. Dale Brant; Junior department, Mrs. Jack Hannaford, Mrs. Rowe Lee, Mrs. Howard Landreth.

Refreshments will be served at the recreation hour each morning. Those who wish to donate refreshments may notify one of the leaders.

Compliments Daughters

Mrs. William Kool entertained with a party honoring her two daughters, Alison, 3, and Shelley, 2, with Mrs. Kenneth Jackson, assisting her Saturday afternoon. Alison's birthday anniversary will occur on June 4 and that of Shelley fell on May 21.

Cake and ice cream and pop were served to the following: Susan and Nancy Simonds, Cindy and Paula Ferguson, Lonnie Brauer, Patty Sheppard, Patty and Donna Jackson, Doug Israel, Mark Alfred, Gary and Dean Russell. The children were presented with balloon favors.

Janey Tippet entertained with a picnic Monday afternoon celebrating the birthday anniversary of her friend, Nancy Henry. A sack lunch was served at the noon hour to the following girls: Janey Tippet, Nancy Henry, Lois Janvrin, Vickie Hatcher, Diana Everett, Marilyn Wyatt. Dessert was served by Mrs. Galen Tippet Janey's mother and Nancy was given a birthday cake as a surprise from Janey's mother.

To Visit At Streator

Mr. and Mrs. William Kool and children will spend the Memorial Day holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Mitchell, Streator. Also a guest in the same home will be her brother, Richard Mitchell, who is employed by an aircraft factory in Ft. Worth, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDonald have received a letter telling of two major operations undergone by Bill Berutti, Franklin, Ohio. Mrs. Berutti writes that her husband is recuperating from the two stomach operations which he underwent early and later in the spring. Mr. Berutti was a teacher in the local schools some years ago and made his home with the McDonalds while here.

Four Roodhouse young people participated in a piano recital held at the Jones chapel, Illinois College, Sunday afternoon. Karen Van Tuyle, Carolyn McCracken, Joe Hopkins and Jeanne Sprague are students of Miss Bernice Copeland.

Memorial services for the Martin's Prairie cemetery will be held Sunday afternoon at the Martin's Prairie Baptist church at 2:30 with Rev. Garfield Rodgers, Manchester, as the speaker.

To Appear With J.C. Hilltop Players

NALA NAJAN OF NEW YORK CITY

This year's Commencement play at Illinois College will be the East Indian play "Shakuntala" by Kalidasa, which will be presented on the Ames Woodland Stage on the campus on Thursday and Friday nights, June 5 and 6, at 9 p.m.

A feature of the performance will be the appearance of three authentic Indian dancers. Two, Miss Vimala Amolik of Ball State Teachers College and Miss Penni Thomas of Drake University, are not newcomers to Hilltop Playgoers for they have appeared on the campus in previous East Indian plays. The third, Nala Najan, is a professional dancer and instructor in Indian dance from New York City, the only male exponent of the temple dance of Tanjore, which is considered the dance par excellence of India. It has the oldest and the most complete traditions of any of the four dance styles existing in India today.

Nala Najan has appeared before leading Indian dignitaries, including Mme. Vijay Lakshmi Pandit, V. Krishna Menon, H.H. the Maharani of Jaipur, H.H. the Maharajah of Kolikongode, H.H. the

Rani of Phaltan, and in the palace of the H.H. the Maharajah of Vizianagaram. He made his first New York stage appearance at the 1954 Summer Dance Festival. Since then he has danced for the finest educational institutions, universities and theatres in the country, such as the Museum of Modern Art, Columbia University, the Asia Institute, Cornell University, Kaufmann Auditorium and others, and has appeared on television in New York and

Los Angeles. He has performed on numerous occasions at government functions both in New York and Washington, D.C. at the request of the Indian Government and the Indonesian Embassy, and he has given numerous lectures demonstrating the art of Indian dance.

Tickets for "Shakuntala" may be obtained at Lane's Book Store, Dean's Office in Tanner Library, $1.25.

Pastoral Helpers Meet At Thompson Home In Chapin

The Pastoral Helpers of the Chapin Christian church met recently at the home of Mrs. Harvey Thompson with Miss Adelia Hamilton as assistant hostess. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Seth Thorndike. Mrs. Miller Ober had the devotional period. The group sang "The Garden of Prayer." Mrs. Ober gave the 23rd Psalm and led the group in prayer.

Reports were given. Final plans for the serving of the Alumni Banquet were made. Twenty members answered roll call by giving their mother's maiden name. There were two guests present, Mrs. Walter Bobbitt and Mrs. Sam Vorhees.

The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. Minnie Wilder; vice president, Mrs. Harvey Thompson; secretary, Mrs. Inez Bonds; assistant secretary, Miss Adelia Hamilton; treasurer, Mrs. Miller Ober.

The meeting closed with the benediction. Mrs. Irene Baker conducted a social hour during which clippings and poems were enjoyed. Mrs. Adelia Brockhouse won the contest prize. Refreshments were served.

Pittsfield Lions Name Dates For Annual Carnival

PITTSFIELD—The Lions club has announced the dates for its annual carnival which will be held June 20-21 this year, somewhat earlier than in previous years. It will be staged on the north side of the square as usual. The club will also assist with the Fall Festival to be held later in the summer.

Newly elected officers of the club are: president, Don Sloan; first vice-president, Dr. Gerald Shaw; second vice-president, Robert Marshall; secretary, Robert Rankin; treasurer, Don Giger; tall twister, John Brass; lion tamer, Tom Troutner, Jr.; directors for two years, Richard Niebur and William Staff.

Four hundred and seventy-five employees of the Brown Shoe Company Factory began their annual vacation of two weeks with pay on Thursday evening. They will resume their work on June 16. Memorial Day and Saturday will not be included as a part of their vacation period.

Pittsfield Girls To Participate In Local Recital

PITTSFIELD—Forty-one Pittsfield children, all girls, will participate in a dance recital to be presented by the Grant School of Dancing in Jacksonville on Thursday evening, June 5, which will be held in the high school at Jacksonville. The class was organized here by Mrs. Henry Aubrey and has been receiving instructions throughout the winter. The children have worked diligently in preparation for the event on Thursday, and their mothers have assisted in making their colorful costumes. About one hundred girls will participate in the show at Jacksonville, including those from Pittsfield.

LUNCHEON CLOSES SEASON FOR PIKE WOMAN'S CLUB

PITTSFIELD — The Pittsfield Woman's club closed its year with a luncheon at the Community Center. Newly elected officers are president, Miss Minna Bauch; vice-president, Mrs. Russell Willsey; secretary, Mrs. Lee Brace, and treasurer, Mrs. Otis Lovell.

Editor Paul Findley and family plan to leave Sunday for a tour of points of interest in the east.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Berry and two daughters and their friend, Marcia Hammett, left Thursday for the weekend in the Ozark mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goodin and small daughter of Denver are guests of his brother, Vincent Goodin, and family and other relatives in the community.

Mrs. H. L. Anderson of Midland, Texas, arrived the first of the week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Caughlan, and family. She is a guest in the home of her brother, Postmaster Bentley Caughlan, and wife.

TOASTMASTERS HOLD PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE QUIZ

W. Rex Fouts, president of Athenian Toastmasters No. 174, presided over the business session. John Pruett acted as toastmaster of the evening. The regular speakers of the evening were Robert Lagerman, W. Rex Fouts and Howard Brown.

Gordon Brown, office manager at Anderson, Clayton and Co., was a guest of Robert Lagerman.

During the table topics session, Mr. Pruett conducted a quiz on parliamentary procedure. The members present found this to be a most interesting subject for discussion.

Mr. Fouts reported on the District and Zone Conference held in Springfield May 24 and 25.

Mr. Fouts and Mr. Brown tied for best speaker of the evening. Their subjects were "Accept The Challenge" and "Let We 'forget,'" respectively.

THIS IS ALASKA—More than twice the size of Texas, Alaska became the property of the United States in 1867, when it was purchased from Russia for $7,200,000. Discovery of gold on Bonanza Creek on the Klondike River in northwest Canada, at the turn of the century, sent over 100,000 Americans streaming into the area. Many of these spread over Alaska and established widely separated settlements. Most of Alaska's vast forests are national forest preserves comprising 21 million acres. Mt. McKinley, highest peak in North America, rises to a majestic 20,300 feet. Mining, fishing and forest products are its principal industries. Gold is still mined in quantity. North America's only tin mines are in Alaska. There is considerable mining of coal, copper, silver, platinum and other minerals. Canning and freezing of fish products (salmon, herring, halibut and shellfish) is a big industry. Of its estimated 160,000 population (exclusive of military personnel), some 7,000 live in Juneau, the capital. Anchorage, with 20,000 inhabitants, is its largest city.

The familiar V-shaped formation of migrating birds gives the rear birds an unobstructed view while their leader guides them through the air.

MAIL TO BURN—That potbellied stove is where most of us would like to put our bills. In this case, however, it is part of a unique mailbox erected by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Archer of Brunswick, Ohio. If it weren't distinctive enough by itself, it is painted a bright aluminum. That's Mrs. Archer collecting the day's mail from the departmentalized mailbox.

MURRAYVILLE IMPLEMENT CO.
MURRAYVILLE, ILLINOIS

PUBLIC SALE OF RESIDENCE PROPERTY
on June 14, A.D. 1958,

The undersigned will sell at public auction at the South Door of the Courthouse in Jacksonville, Illinois, AT 11:00 O'CLOCK A.M. (D.S.T.), the real estate described as follows:

Lots Twenty-five (25) and Twenty-two (22) in Duncan Grove Addition to Jacksonville, except four and one-half (4½) feet off the South side of said Lot 22, Morgan County, Illinois, subject to all easements of record.

The above property is located on the Southeast corner of Webster Avenue and Maple Street in Jacksonville, Illinois, and is improved with a four (4) room modern house, with gas heat, full basement, and has a single car garage, known as 590 N. Webster, Jacksonville, Illinois.

The above house and corner lot fronting 138' on Webster Avenue and 130' on Maple Street will be offered separately, as well as together with the balance of the tract. The balance of the tract consists of approximately 1.5 acres, which is suitable for building lots and subdivision, fronting 187' 7" on Maple Street and 133' 6" on Webster Avenue.

Terms of Sale: 20 per cent on the day of sale, and the balance on approval of title and delivery of deed. Abstracts of title will be furnished for each tract sold. Possession 30 days after approval of title. Taxes for the year 1957, payable in 1958, will be paid by the Sellers. Said sale will be subject to 1958 taxes, payable in 1959.
